"DISTORTION OF TRUTH"

This week's statement by Communist party Secretary Mr. Khrushchev on the Israel-Arab situation was a "cynical, hypocritical, shameless distortion of the truth", an Israel Legation spokesman said in Sydney this week.

The spokesman said that the statement was one of cold calculated political expediency.

Khrushchev made his statements reportedly in a newspaper interview with an Egyptian newspaper.

The Legation spokesman pointed out that the Soviet Union voted for the establishment of the State at the U.N. in 1947 and theirs was the crucial vote.

To suggest that Israel had committed aggressive acts since then blandly denies the war against Israel, the embargo and blockade and many other acts.

The spokesman said that the danger in Mr. Khrushchev's statement was the possibility that it may give the Arabs the impression, lost for some time, that they would be backed in a second round against Israel.

The Legation spokesman pointed out that the Soviet Union voted for the establishment of the State at the U.N. in 1947 and theirs was the crucial vote.

Ambassador Abba Eban still hopes

WASHINGTON, Weds.: The Ambassador of Israel in U.S.A. (Mr. Abba Eban), who returned here from Israel on Sunday, indicated that he expects to remain on duty as Ambassador for a considerable time to come.

He will report to the U.S.A. Secretary of State (Mr. Dulles) in the near future on his consultations in Israel.

He said that nothing had happened in recent weeks to change the essence of the security situation.

He would continue his efforts to obtain American arms for Israel.

NEW YORK, Weds.: The Free Europe Committee has published documents indicating the rising incidence of anti-Semitism in Poland.

MIGRANTS SAY:

Also quoted are reports from emigrants from Poland who have arrived in Geneva. These reports said: "The most important reason behind the decision of those previously hesitant about emigration to Israel is anti-Semitism, which in recent months has grown greatly in strength in Poland."

This anti-Semitism has always existed among the masses but the regime and the party knew nothing about it officially.

"Now this anti-Semitism comes from above and is the echo of what is happening in Russia."

KHRUSCHEV'S HOT ATTACK ON ISRAEL

CALM BEFORE STORM

TEL AVIV, Weds.: Since the visit to the Middle East of the U.N. Secretary General (Mr. D. Hammarskjold) on his special mission, the Arab States have maintained a period of calm.

But this is only the calm before the storm, warned former Commander of Palmach Igal Alon.

He was addressing a meeting on Sunday.

ON ISRAEL

JERUSALEM, Weds.: The Soviet leader Khrushchev said on Sunday that a war between the Arabs and Israel would lead inevitably to a third world war.

This was reported on Monday by a correspondent of the Cairo newspaper "Al Ahram" who accompanied the Crown Prince of Yemen on his Russian visit.

The correspondent asserted that in an interview with Mr. Khrushchev, the latter strongly supported the Arab cause.

He said that Western imperialism has created Israel which he described as a small state hating stability and always striving for trouble.

He said that Israel is launching aggressive attacks against Arab neighbours to ensure her supplies of aid from the West.

ARAB COUNSEL

But, he said, if the Arabs were patient, strong and united "all the results will be in their favour."

He is reported to have said that time was on the side of the Arabs and he urged them to strengthen themselves: to close their ranks and to exert all their efforts to preserve peace.

Mr. Khrushchev said he would support the Arab cause at the United Nations but the usefulness of Wolfensohn has been selected for the Epee team and Szanto for the sabre team.

"Concerned by Poznan rising"

NEW YORK, Weds.: The Jewish Labour Committee has issued a statement in connection with the Poznan uprising.

"We are deeply concerned at this critical moment for the future of the remnants of Polish Jewry."

"We are equally concerned for their safety and the final liberation of every nation, including the Soviet Union, from Soviet domination and control."

PUMP INVENTED

TEL AVIV, Weds.: The construction of a centripetal pump hitherto regarded as a scientific impossibility, has been completed successfully at the Haifa Technological School as the first phase of a research project sponsored by the U.S.A. Air Force.

The work was directed by Professor Marcus Bleiner, head of the School's Rheological Laboratories.

Observers stated that the new pump will have a revolutionary effect upon much of future planning in various phases of aerospace engineering and its possibilities will have to be considered in designing guided missiles.

The pump will be used as a compressor. Its phenomenon bases on an effect which will increase as the density of air decreases, thereby making it most useful in the upper layers of the atmosphere.

Will not halt arms

LONDON, Weds.: The Foreign Secretary (Mr. Selwyn Lloyd) told the House of Commons on Monday that he thought the balance of arms in the Middle East was still "rather in favour of Israel".

He replied negatively when he was asked whether he would halt the export of arms to Egypt in view of the departure of the last British troops from the Suez Canal Zone.

TEL AVIV, Weds.: The new Soviet Foreign Minister, Mr. Dimitri Shepilov, refused to receive Dr. Walter Eytan, Director-General of Israel's Foreign Ministry, it was revealed on the return of Dr. Eytan after a 10-day stay in Moscow.

The daily "Lamercha" reports that Dr. Eytan met only the Soviet Assistant for Middle East Affairs in the Foreign Ministry (Mr. Semenov).

The pro-Soviet daily "Mishmar" asserted that Mr. Shepilov's visit to Cairo and Damascus has affected adversely Israel's position in the international arena.

A routine business trip turned out to be a whirlwind of pleasant surprises for the Stan Kormans, who left for the States last month. On June 16, two days after arriving in America, their son David announced his engagement to 18-years-old Barbara Teller. On Sunday week the young couple will celebrate their marriage in New York... and in less than four months time they'll be back to make their new home in Melbourne!

David, who has been studying textile engineering at the Philadelphia Institute for the past four years, met his fiancee soon after his arrival in America.

After their wedding the young couple will spend a European honeymoon, returning to Australia via England late in the year.

The big get-together is all in honour of the Tugendhafts' only son, Leon, who'll be celebrating his Barmitzvah on July 21, with a party at Tudor Court.

The Israel Ambassador was asked to call at the Foreign Office in London because it has not received any report of troop movements in the Israel-Jordan area.

Orders for troops to stand-by have been issued in Jordan. The Arab League claims that Israeli military concentrations have been built up the whole length of the Jordan frontier with particularly large contingents of Jews in the Jerusalem area.

The Government of Lebanon has called an emergency meeting to consider reports of Israel's troop movements.

Turn of the screw

The latest statements of Khrushchev will not affect unduly some of our "local boys" who are used to turning somersaults as the winds blow from the Kremlin.

Their attitude to Israel and to Zionism has had to do over so much since 1948 that returning to the barometer reading of the time of the Doctors' Plot will not be much of an effort. But perhaps something new in the way of an "explanation" may be turned up.

Will that also apply to the use of the term "Abrahamicites"? Will it cover the revelations in the Warsaw paper, "Folkstimme" of anti-Semitism in Poland? Or the recent broadcast over Warsaw Radio by Polish commentator Gustav Kaden who warned against the menace and rise of anti-Semitism and quoted the "first shot" appearing in the student paper "Poprostu" in an article by Leszek Kowalkowski citing trends and issuing warnings?

Khrushchev "would throw out Zionists" if he had them in Russia... so he is a dictator too, in the tradition established since the death of Lenin.

But "Zionists" could not "settle in Russia" to establish their state there, as the very word Zionist indicates.

See what comes of seeing people only as labels, and not as individuals!

Welcome

I welcome the (likely) introduction of a Youth Chairman to the Victorian Board of Deputies Executive.

Mr. Isi Leibler's fine address last Monday indicates his fitness for the position, which is bolstered furthermore by years of youth work and administration and present contact with youth, as well as other qualities of youth leadership.

The Jewish News has been interested for many years in youth work, initiating a youth column during the war years, and providing a forum for youth opinion in other ways.

The prophet

Sholem Asch's new book "The Prophet" is bound to excite controversy. It completes his Biblical cycle, and the impression it has left with me is of Asch's purpose in writing the series.

I feel that he has been horrified by the fact that civilised, Christian Europe could engineer and witness the churban of the Jews in Europe. Thinking to causes, he has decided that this was because Jews are unreal to non-Jews, in the sense that they are strange like creatures from another world. So he set about showing these non-Jews that the founders of the state religion were all Jews.

Perhaps Asch has thought that to depict the Jews as the psychological types of his Yiddish classics would leave them just as strange as ever, and he endeavoured a compromise with the non-Jewish outlook.

He has fallen then, between two stools, though it may be that some non-Jews will think for the first time of the distinctly Jewish milieu from which Christianity sprang. His choice of the deity (Continued on page 4)

Board wants retraction

MELBOURNE: No response has yet been received from the Chamber of Manufactures to the vigorous protests and criticisms of the Jewish community over an anti-semitic article published in "Industrial Victoria", the Chamber's own monthly, last May.

The article, written by a certain Mr. Chesterton with similar anti-semitic tendencies as his renowned author uncle, was published as "a matter of great interest" in Industrial Victoria.

By very crude implication, the article ascribes the decline of Britain as a world power to the machinations of cosmopolitan - capitalist - communist alien Jews gaining influence in British affairs.

A strongly worded letter by the President of the Board of Deputies, which virtually tells the Chamber that it ought to know better than to publish such stupidly infamous material in its magazine and demanding a full retraction has so far not elicited any response or acknowledgement. It was revealed at the Board of Deputies this week.

LETTERS IGNORED

The Chamber has also failed to respond so far to a parallel protest signed by fifteen of its own Jewish members, or to the subsequent delivery by personal messenger of a copy of the President's letter.

Mr. Leibler's letter was sent originally in the middle of June and perhaps the workings of the Chamber are actually slower than those of Government departments which Chamber leaders like some others, are often found to criticise.

But feeling at the Board of Deputies is running high over this matter and it is certain that the Board Executive will not rest until it has exacted a handsome apology and retraction from this supposedly highly respectable and responsible organisation.

RECITAL FOR MDA

Approximately 150 attended a reception at the home of Mr. S. Goldberg in Orrong Road, Toorak last Saturday night, when famous pianist Miss Hephzibah Menushin played a Weber Sonata and the first performance in Australia of a Sonatina by Ben-Chaim.

She supplemented her magnificent performance with a short address appealing for support for MDA.

Her husband, Dr. Richard Hauser, spoke on "Israel's Contribution to Social Welfare" discarding his text early and embarking on a stirring account of his own personal experience of the activity of MDA in Israel. He urged strong support for MDA in a particularly eloquent address.

Chairman of the function was Mr. Baron D. Snider

MLA, and Mr. P. Komessaroff spoke of MDA's urgent requirements.

Mr. Snider moved the vote of thanks to the guests of honour and Mr. Komessaroff to Mr. Goldberg who was not only host but had gone to a deal of trouble to achieve the social success of the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Hauser came over specially from Sydney for the function and a moving gesture was that, at the opening of the appeal, Mrs. Hauser presented a box of flowers given to her, for auction and then Dr. and Mrs. Hauser contributed the first donation towards the auction which raised £78.

The function was to benefit the candidature of Miss Dahlia Altschul in the JNF Queen Competition.

Brisbane Shule's 70th Birthday

The Brisbane Jewish Community will celebrate the 70th Anniversary of the Consecration of the Synagogue, Margaret Street, Brisbane, together with the 91st Anniversary of the establishment of the Brisbane Hebrew Congregation by an Anniversary Sabbath Service on July 7th and Commemorative functions on July 8th and 15th.

The Synagogue Building was consecrated on July 18th, 1886 on the present site. The building is in its original form. No structural alterations have taken place, only interior improvements to meet growing membership.

The Congregation was established in 1865 by 17 members of the Jewish faith, 6 years after separation of Queensland from N.S.W. Jewish settlers can be traced, however, as early as 1841. Today the Community comprises 1600 souls.

Services from 1865-1886 were held in various temporary premises and finally in the lower portion of the Masonic Hall for 9 years. The Foundation stone of the present Synagogue was laid in 1885.

The Consecration Ceremony of which full description appeared in the Brisbane "Courier" of the day, was attended by the Chief Justice, the Colonial Secretary and many prominent citizens who, together with Congregants, occupied all the 400 seats. The total cost of erection was about £5,000, the time of building 18 months.

The Synagogue is built in Byzantine style, with two minaret turrets 90 ft. high flanking the arched entrance doorway. The interior is divided into one central and two side portions by large octagonal columns, with a very high ceiling hexagonal in shape. The ark, in an arched recess, is composed of Ormeau stone and approached by a broad flight of stone steps. The Reading Desk (Almemor) is in the very centre of the Synagogue. The upstairs Ladies Gallery flanking two sides and rear has been considerably enlarged during recent years.

There are still a few descendants of the original pioneer families worshipping in the Brisbane Synagogue today and taking a prominent part in congregational affairs. One nonagenarian who was present at the opening survives today and is a regular worshipper at the Synagogue.

OPENED BY PREMIER

At the rear of the Synagogue Building, a new Memorial Hall was opened in 1955 by the Premier of Queensland, the Hon. V. C. Gair, M.L.A. for educational, cultural and social purposes. It commemorates the Servicemen of World War II, Communal Benefactors and Martyrs of our faith. The Honour Roll for World War I is to be found in the entrance vestibule of the Synagogue.

The main religious ceremony in connection with these Anniversaries will take place on Saturday morning, July 7th, beginning at 8.45 a.m. when the Special Anniversary Service will include appropriate Prayers and Sermon, and also special honours to Congregants befitting the occasion.

On Sunday, July 8th, an Anniversary Function will be held in the Memorial Hall when addresses pertaining to the past, present and future of the Congregation will be given by Communal Speakers.

On Sunday, July 15th, a comprehensive Exhibition of Jewish interest comprising sections on Communal History, Education, Literature, Ritual, Israel and contemporary Jewish affairs, will be opened by the Hon. W. Moore, Minister of Health and Home Affairs, representing the Hon. Premier of Queensland. During the evening, Rabbi Fabian will deliver a lecture on the "Centenary of British Jewry".

An Anniversary Broadcast was heard over the National Station 4QR on Monday, July 2nd, at 6.30 p.m.

A very cordial invitation is extended to Interstate visitors who will be in Queensland at the time to attend the above Anniversary occasions where they will be most welcome.

International Conference

The Executive of the National Union of Australasian Jewish Students has just announced that the 5th Annual Conference of the N.U.A.J.S. will be held earlier than originally planned to enable groups of overseas students who will be here for the Olympic Games to attend the Conference.

The change has been made in view of the interest shown by many overseas Jewish student societies in the previous Conferences held by the N.U.A.J.S. and the request made by the World Union of Jewish Students for greater international participation at the Conferences held by its national groups.

The Conference will be held in Melbourne from January 4th until 14th, 1957, and provisions will be made for billets for overseas delegations from the end of the Games until the Conference.

CO-OPERATION

At its last Executive meeting, the N.U.A.J.S. strengthened its co-operation with local non-Jewish university groups, by inviting the Secretary of the National Union of Australian University Students, Miss Wendy Castley, to attend the meeting.

As an outcome, arrangements have been made for an exchange of material between these two national organisations.

As another means of furthering contacts with university groups, the two N.U.A.J.S. representatives on the Australian Committee for World University Service are

SEMINAR

As the World University Service Committee is the only body which brings together representatives of the National Union of Australian University Students, the Australian Student Christian Movement, the University Catholic Federation of Australia and the National Union of Australasian Jewish Students, it was thought that it would be appropriate for such an organisation to sponsor a seminar whereby members of the above mentioned groups may meet to exchange their ideas and to further cooperation between denominational organisations on such matters as religious and cultural goodwill with the universities.

Deputies will have portfolio for youth

MELBOURNE: There is certain to be a unanimous vote in favour of altering the constitution of the Board of Deputies to establish a Chairman of Youth affairs on the Executive Board, together with a suitable committee.

This became evident at this week's Board meeting when delegates indicated that they were in favour of this proposal, although no actual motion was before the Board yet.

Mr. Issy Leibler, representing the Melbourne Jewish Youth Council, indicated that as far as Melbourne Jewish youth was concerned, the Chairman thus appointed need not necessarily be of the younger generation himself, as long as he was a suitable person to look after youth affairs.

The Chairman of the Executive (Mr. Leavitt) indicated that JDC aid would be needed for some time to come.

MELBOURNE FRIDAY JULY 6th 1956

DAVID vs. GOLIATH

Those members of our Community who are alive to the anti-Semitic menace contained in the activities of the Ukrainian migrants here, will not be surprised to learn of the latest speech of Khrushchev, a Ukrainian.

It links up with an earlier speech only now reported; delivered when he attended the obsequies in Poland of Boleslav Bierut former President and Premier of that country.

On that former occasion, he referred to Jews to the Central Committee in these terms: "You have too many Abramovitchs!"

On the latest occasion, he told a correspondent of the Cairo paper "Al Ahram", who is accompanying the Crown Prince of Yemen on a state visit to the nation that "did away with" royalty and aristocracy, of his revulsion for Israel.

Because only a man caught in emotionally based repulsion rather than impersonal logic, could have said the things he did say about Israel.

It is not true that Israel launches aggressive attack against her Arab neighbours nor is it true that Israel is an "Imperialist creation," (for Russia also "voted" to create Israel) though the riots in Poland make it clear that the dominated states of Eastern Europe are the Imperialist creation of Russia.

This Russia has inherited the international aims and outlook of the Czars' Russia: dreams of world power... "historical necessity" (whatever this may mean) is supposed to be driving it on. But it is only the awareness and identification with Russian past history that is the driving power.

There is a strong hint in Khrushchev's statement that if he were to say what he felt about Israel's future, he would be accused of provoking war... he knows how Israel would feel about it because such a remark could only mean a negative attitude toward Israel's future and he thought it may stir Israel to action.

By arming the Arabs to the extent that is the case, Russia will make the Mediterranean a Russian lake, it will "break" Israel economically to have to keep up with the surrounding threats and dangers and it will bring the Russian regime in seven-league boots to beseige a large part of the earth's surface.

If the use of power corrupts the users, it is also true that sufferance under power eventually stirs the victims to renewed outbursts towards freedom.

With Selwyn Lloyd comfortable in London about the arms situation in the Middle East, it becomes more and more apparent that Israel stands alone but for the Jews of the world: a pitiful few out of the 2000 millions of human beings that make up humanity.

Is it not a case of David defying Goliath? There is something magical in the situation, and there will be what may appear to be nissim if people will rise to their opportunities.

ro-Isaiah as "The Prophet" may be linked up with this conscious or unconscious pattern: for the non-Jews this Isaiah with his dark sayings about "the suffering servant" is THE prophet; because the churches of Christendom have taught them to see the foretelling of Jesus in these references. For Jews, this Isaiah is a great figure in another way to that depicted in this book.

Asch is not historically au fait with the period despite the magnificence of his descriptions of Babylon and the desolate Jerusalem. Only Flaubert's Carthage has been more successful an evocation!

If Asch had more detailed knowledge of the period, he would have known what made his characters "tick" through the marvelous gift of empathy that novelists have (if they are worth their salt). Instead, Zerubavel and Isaiah are inanimate symbols and not the living, vital people they were.

the fact that each year responsible and trained youth leaders are turned out by the leading organisations. And it is to these devoted and hard-worked people to whom we are so indebted.

Leading an organisation or playing an important part in it can be very satisfying. Besides, the satisfaction one derives from doing something useful it can also be extremely stimulating. Not only is the boredom of everyday work and study relieved, but the experience gained in learning how to deal with people and how to get a job done is invaluable.

The Melbourne Jewish Youth Council runs every year a Youth Leadership Training Course designed to help those interested in Youth Leadership. Though the Course is intended primarily to help its affiliated organisations, provision is made for members of the public. Those interested are cordially invited to make enquiries.

ANNOUNCEMENTTo Skirt and Trouser Manufacturers

Dear Sirs,

We have great pleasure in advising you that we are now marketing a new waist band which is far superior to any now available.

After careful research and exhaustive tests, we have finally produced this band — highly resistant to pressing and dry cleaning and at the same time of an attractive finish similar in look to TAUTEX. The actual grip band is also available in any width, and can be used to replace TAUTEX at a comparable price.

The new band is marketed under the name of NORTEX and is protected by Patent application No. 19127/56.

The NORTEX band is available in any size or shade and made to specification.

Should you be interested, please contact us or your warehouse distributor for further information.

We are,

Yours faithfully,

NEW YORK BIAS BINDING CO.

N. PLOTKIN.

'My people'

(Without Apologies to Sophie Tucker)

ALL of us (or most of us, at any rate) get very exasperated with our fellow Jews and the Jewish Community from time to time, because of course we have our faults, and very annoying ones they are sometimes...

But in times of crisis, happy or sad, to be a member of the Jewish Family is a wonderful thing...

Within the last nine months I have lived through three such crises: a new baby, the death of my father, and last week the move into our own house, after twelve years of flat-dwelling.

On all three occasions the warmth and the feeling of sorrow or joy shared is something one doesn't forget or take for granted.

It's not just a matter of flowers and presents, it's far more than that.

It is firstly the knowledge that ones joyous excitement and pride or one's sadness is really shared, not simply made the occasion for polite phrases.

And what is really touching, sometimes funny and always wonderfully helpful, is the way Jewish emotions seem to channel themselves into food of various sorts.

Because it is a fact, sometimes hard to realise, that though one's world seems to break in two or one seems to be too busy moving an entire household, the business of meals go on, especially where there are children.

And so, in all these crises, there is a constant procession of steamed chickens, casseroles, fish, cake, etc., which is the Jewish housewife's way of saying: "I don't know a better way of helping out."

To the day I die I will never forget a very close friend of ours ringing up in tears when she heard of my father's death. And all she could choke out over the phone was: "I'm frying you some nice fresh garfish... Ill bring it round this afternoon..." That meant more than all the pretty speeches and megillahs in the world.

And when moving day came, in all the muddle and tiredness and excitement; no trying to cook at the same time, but someone with a dish of fried fish, a casserole, a stew, and someone to sweep the children off to dinner at the end of the day—

These things happen to a far greater degree within the Jewish community than elsewhere, for my non-Jewish friends are amazed and not a little envious.

So, counting my blessings at the moment and finding them many—not the least of them is that I and my loved ones are so fortunate in our friends and in being part of the Jewish tradition of warm helpfulness and affection.

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE A DAME...

A strange report from Tel Aviv of the export of Israeli brides to "foreign Jews" abroad, and bitter complaints of local bachelors that the "best girls" were being sent overseas.

Reading of import restrictions in our local papers at the same time, I carefully scanned the list to see if "beautiful brides" came into category A or B.

Were they to be classed as essential or non-essential imports or as "luxury goods"?

JNF's 5 - year project for Australia

AMIRAH GUST

The Federal Jewish National Fund Conference to take place in Sydney next weekend will be devoted to establishing machinery to organise JNF activities for the five-year project to be undertaken in response to a request from Israel to step up support by at least 25%.

JNF Headquarters appealed to JNF workers throughout the Golah to increase their activities to enable JNF to meet its commitments in the time of emergency.

Australian JNF suggested that a particular portion of the 5-year plan should be allotted to Australian Jewry: in the form of a specific project or task.

Jerusalem Corridor

It is believed that Australian JNF will be allocated a fair slice of territory in the Jerusalem Corridor to establish a link between Jerusalem and the Mediterranean. This will be known as the Australian area and will entail terracing of the soil, planting of trees, establishing of settlements, etc.

These have been suggested as it is expected that the JNF alone will raise about £650,000 in the five years (a activities apart from the Appeals).

Jerusalem was so impressed by the suggestion that every other Jewish community in the Golah will be allocated an area to be improved and developed.

The Sydney Conference is expected to deal with plans to bring the Australian JNF's commitment to fruition.

Three Plans

It is likely the plans will crystallise around: firstly

Emergency Appeal passes £95,000

The Victorian Emergency Appeal total has now passed £95,000.

The contributions received during the last week include £300 in the mail, £160 from Doctors and Professional men to whom special letters had been written, £23 from the former Israel Club account being balance of their funds in hand, and £30 collected by L Bender at the 15th Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. D. Bender.

Carlton Canvassers' Results: Mr. Rymer, Convenor of the Carlton Appeal workers has handed in £300 to the Appeal office from the canvassers in his district to date. Mr. Rymer and his energetic band of workers are continuing to make contacts in their district.

Other Districts: Although a number of individual canvassers have sent in their results to the Appeal office most district results are still being awaited. Some district workers are still being sought to make necessary contacts and the Appeal office would like to hear from any one prepared to visit potential contributors in the Elwood district and also in Armadale. A further £100 has been received from the Fruiterers through Mr. Landerer.

Mailing Campaign: The Appeal office whilst still engaged in distributing canvass cards, and following up the workers' efforts by personal contact, is also meanwhile preparing an intensive mailing campaign.

The participants are Professor M. D. Goldman, Mr. I. Taub, and the emissaries: Menahem Lewin, Asher Mansbach and Simon Kotler.

The artistic part: Items by Mrs. Rachel Sacks, Miss Miriam Rochlin, Miss Rina Kozak, Mr. S. Feder.

Results from the last Appeal, November, 1955 showed blue boxes, of which there are 14,000 placed in homes. Assessing four persons to each box, it means the whole Jewish population is almost covered. The idea now is to cover these few not yet within it. It will also be proposed to encourage the increase in the yield of each box.

The latest clearance was conducted under the call for a 25% increase under the five year plan and has raised in the vicinity of £25,000, an improvement on the previous clearance.

Secondly, a source of increased revenue will be stepped-up Golden Book inscriptions, Tree Certificates, Sefer Hayeled inscriptions, establishment of Nachlat, and also a new proposal involving "Flower Certificates" and the presentation of small gifts made in Israel.

Herzl created the JNF as a means of Jewish self-help, and self-help is obviously all that the Jews can rely on these days, said Dr. Fraenkel in outlining these proposals this week.

All States will send representatives to the Conference, which will begin on Saturday night and continue through Sunday all day. A reception will be held at the home of Mr. Paul Ungar on Saturday afternoon.

Challenge to Australian Jewry

(BY A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT)

"The Jewish News" recently presented a survey of Jewish education in America, in which there was noted a marked increase in the number of Yeshivas and Yeshiva students over the past few years.

The increase amounted to an amazing 150% over the 1948 total—or now well over 50,000 students.

The survey concluded on the note, that such an unprecedented rise was indicative of "Something more than a mere change of heart among Jewish parents in America."

A study of the causes underlying this trend in American Jewish education would appear to be both valid and useful. Certainly, we in Australia may be able to derive much invaluable guidance in facing up to the Jewish educational crisis which confronts us here.

To begin with it might be worth while to offer a description of just what we mean by a Yeshiva. In doing so we must point out, that there are two levels of Yeshiva Colleges in existence — Senior and Junior. The Junior Yeshiva caters for children from kindergarten up to, and including the 6th grade. School-time is evenly allotted to Jewish studies in the morning, and secular studies in the afternoon.

The lay-out of the schools is such as to provide the child with the physical, as well as spiritual benefits of Yeshiva education. Invariably then, the Yeshivas are located in comfortable grounds and the buildings themselves are provided with all modern educational amenities.

This latter provision is especially facilitated by the fact that in the vast majority of cases the schools have been just recently built.

With this re-adjusted picture of the Yeshiva, we can begin to realize why it is that so many American-born Jews look at a Yeshiva differently from their parents did "back in the old country".

But there is more to it than simply improved physical amenities.

The modern American Jew, who has witnessed the tragedy of 20th Century science divorced from a moral base, and feels keenly the lesson such experience has to offer. It may not be that he descends to the profound depths of this philosophical truth, but nonetheless, he discerns the basic principle.

He is impressed by the fact that modern society is indeed plagued with a sore lack of faith and principle, and he sincerely believes that a genuine return to some of the values that were dear to the preceding generation might do society very much good.

In his own sphere this young American Jew, now with children of his own, has seen at first hand the wrought in American Jewish life. Intermarriage has reached critical proportions and the process of disintegration has been rapidly accelerated.

As one young man told this writer, "If my son should be so removed in Jewishness from me as I am from my father, then I see no other outcome but that my own grandchildren will heaven forbid disappear from the Jewish scene".

The curriculum is similarly divided between Jewish studies in the morning and Secular subjects in the afternoon, right through to the completion of High-School. On the Jewish side, the accent is placed on the study of Tanach, Halachah and of course, Gemorah. The girls progress on to a Jewish Girls High-School or Batya Yaakov, which has comparable facilities for Jewish and Secular education, except that here the Jewish studies concentrate more on the language as such, Tanach, Jewish history and customs.

Above all, one thing should be constantly borne in mind, and that is, that the impression of the European Yeshiva, with its cramped quarters, its restricted budget, its meagre facilities and its needy students, is a picture which has no counterpart in American Yeshivas. The modern American Yeshiva is an educational institution which must cater for a bright young American coming from a well-to-do and happy American home.

ONE SOLUTION

Young Jewish Americans with just some slight appreciation of Jewish values, sense that there is simply no solution other than imbuing the child, at least in his younger years, with a firm foundation of Jewish tradition.

In effect then he recognizes that without Jewish study, there can be no Jewish consciousness and that without Jewish consciousness there is no Jewish identity!

The fact is, as one writer has put it, that "these parents, sensing the spiritual crisis in their own lives, are anxious to train their children to be intelligent and well-integrated American Jews".

In the Yeshiva they find an educational unit which will imbue their child with lasting Jewish tenets of faith, even while it enables him to pro-

Jewish RSL branch for Sydney?

Moves which may lead to the formation of a Jewish RSL Branch are being mooted in Sydney.

Jewish Ex-service men, connected with Naje, are canvassing the idea.

It is understood that formation of such an RSL Sub-branch would be acceptable to the RSL. Such a Sub-branch, formed by eligible Jewish Ex-service men would be of considerable Public Relations value, it was said by informed circles in Sydney. Suggestion is for this branch to be called the Sir John Monash RSL Sub-branch.

All Naje members who have served overseas would be eligible for such a Branch.

Britain does not share Arab view

LONDON, (JTA): Britain does not share the Arab view of their armistice agreements with Israel, whereby they consider themselves to be still at war with Israel. Joint Foreign Under-Secretary A. D. Dodds-Parker told the House of Commons.

He was speaking in an adjournment discussion on the Egyptian blockade of the Suez Canal to Israeli and Israeli-bound shipping which had been raised by J.W.W. Peyton (Conservative).

Pointing out that Egypt was flouting a Security Council resolution calling for freedom of passage through the Canal, Mr. Peyton asked: "Are we really to put up with that? How strong do we intend the UN to be? Is our loyalty to that organisation merely one of lip-service?"

WORSENED

The position had been worsened, Mr. Peyton declared, by the lack of Anglo-American cooperation in this field.

Bonn diplomats opposed to Israel

BONN. (JTA) Reports that the West German Federal Republic contemplates the establishment of diplomatic relations with Israel were formally denied here.

This was after the Council of the Arab League in Cairo had announced its intention of "dealing with" stories that the question was on the agenda of the current conference of all West German Ambassadors and Ministers accredited to countries of the Middle East.

The four-day conference opened in Istanbul under the chairmanship of Professor Walter Hallstein, State Secretary and no. 2 man in the German Foreign Office.

According to information in well-informed German diplomatic quarters, he is sounding out German mission chiefs in the capitals of Arab League countries and Turkey on the repercussions that are likely to ensue if at least a permanent trade delegation is now set up in Tel Aviv or a Consulate opened in Haifa.

The German mission chiefs have warned State Secretary Hallstein particularly against full-fledged diplomatic relations with Israel, it is understood here.

Dr. Walter Becker, German Ambassador in Cairo, has assured the Secretary-General of the Arab League that all speculation about diplomatic relations between Bonn and Israel were "devoid of substance."

BLUNT THREAT

Dr. Becker was appointed to his present post a year ago, after Nazi circles in Egypt had complained that his predecessor, Dr. Guenther Paewelke, maintained social contacts with Jewish circles in Cairo and had cold-shouldered Franz Rademacher, convicted murderer of Serbian Jewry and a fugitive from justice in Germany who is now in business in the Middle East.

In a blunt threat directed at one of Germany's most vulnerable and sensitive political spots, Egyptian Prime Minister Nasser warned in an interview distributed here by the International News Service that Egypt would enter into diplomatic relations with East Germany in the event of West German recognition of Israel.

They are convinced that Israel's superior training and morale will win in case of an Arab attack.

8 months for
"Natinform" Chief

Odenburg. (JTA)

Wolfgang Sarg, head of the German section of the anti-Jewish "Natinform" fascist movement, has been sentenced to eight months imprisonment by a local court for conspiracy, libel and fraud.

The "Natinform" is an international fascist splinter group with branches in several countries, notably Great Britain.

Sarg, who is only 30, admitted during the two-week trial that, together with other leading neo-Nazis in Northwest Germany, he had signed a manifesto pledging "unconditional loyalty to National Socialism."

His flat was decorated with a Hitler portrait flanked by two Hitler Youth daggers.

The investigation against Sarg dragged on for three years.

When his home was searched in 1953, the police found that most documents had been removed shortly before their arrival, which makes it appear likely that he was warned in time.

FAILURE OF A MISSION:DAVID MARSHALL
a political tragedy

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

LONDON: When the political curtain was rung down on David Marshall, Singapore's first Chief Minister, a couple of weeks ago broadcasters and commentators who, in token self-restraint, had held their fire for almost a fortnight, swiftly delivered the coup de grace to one of Asia's most colorful personalities.

Anybody but David Marshall, they ranted, could have secured independence for Singapore within the British Commonwealth. And they forecast that his successor, Singapore-born Lim Yew Hock, a 42-years old Asian nationalist, would have no trouble in coming to terms with the British Colonial Office.

The tragedy of it all is that Marshall, one of Singapore's most brilliant minds, himself supplied much of the ammunition that was fired at him by the noisy commentators. Not only by way of his flamboyant mannerisms, but also through his own verbal admissions. A few days after the breakdown of his London talks (in May) with the British Colonial Secretary (Mr. Lennox Boyd), Marshall forecast that Lim Yew Hock, his close associate, would take over in Singapore.

"He can do it", Marshall was quoted as saying; "he is not like me—explosive, gelignite".

OUTBURSTS CRITICISED

It is probably true that Mr. Marshall's quick temper in some way affected the London negotiations. But it would be wrong to claim that his temper was responsible for their collapse. Not that the newspapers were not trying their hardest to convince people that Marshall's outbursts brought about the impasse. They went out of their way to picture him as the noisy ill-mannered demagogue who lacked both polish and political astuteness to bring off what, according to them, was little more than a new arrangement in an old anan.

In addition a much uglier picture was, if not painted, at least suggested to the British public. And this portrayed Marshall as an ill-mannered Jew who not only failed Singapore but who showed himself singularly bereft of that skill and ability generally expected of experienced diplomats.

Everybody knows, of course, that Marshall—although British-educated—is not an Anglo-Saxon. His ancestors migrated from Spain to Mesopotamia and his father, some 50 years ago, decided to move to Singapore where, he believed, conditions were more settled and propitious.

PROUD JEWISH FAMILY

The family's name then was Marshal, meaning a torch, and the first thing that Saul otherwise Marshall senior, did was to anglicise the family's Hebrew name. However, they did not turn their back on Judaism. Marshall senior said to that. They lived up to all the traditions of Sephardic teachings and young David, in fact, had to leave a well-known Singapore school, because his father insisted on his staying away from classes on the Day of Atonement.

David Marshall, although at first opposed to Zionism, has remained a proud Jew and for years was President of Singapore's Jewish Welfare Board. Not much is known of his student days except that while still at school—he was often asked to play Shakespearean leads. They were the beginnings of his colorful acting career that finally landed him in politics after many successful appearances at the bar.

Marshall received his Labor education from Morgan Phillips on a trip to London in 1954. From it emerged the Singapore Labor Front which gave the island its first local government.

Marshall's mission to London eight weeks ago was inspired by the realisation that the Labor Front had always to be one step ahead of the Chinese People's Action Party or face political extinction. His failure at the Colonial Office has strengthened the extremists' position. They point to the "futility" of making "deals" with the British on such topics as colonialism.

ALTERNATIVE TO COMMUNISM

Marshall's defeat is a tragedy in the real sense. He was genuinely convinced that the militant ideas of communism could be defeated only by offering the Singaporeans freedom and socialism, to his mind a dynamic proposition that was more wholesome than communism.

To-day he is often described as Singapore's "Kerenky", but most observers believe that, sooner or later, he will make a come-back in local politics. Even in defeat he remained the actor, placing more emphasis on appearances than on anything else.

When he went to Government House on June 7 to lay down his office, onlookers noticed that, as always, he was using his distinctive-looking impressive motor car with the hood rolled half back. On this occasion his car appeared even more shiny and polished than in the days when he was still Chief Minister.

But the onlookers saw something else. Shortly afterwards they noticed another, smaller and well worn car pass through the gates of Government House. It was that of Lim Yew Hock, Marshall's successor.

Which led political observers to speculate that the new regime might be as different from the old as the ears of Singapore's first and second Chief Minister.

ROUNDABOUT

nadian and even Australian Jews have made special "buying trips" abroad to find good Jewish wives in Israel is galling to the local girls, and many must bewail the fact that, though Shadchens are doing a thriving export trade in Israel, the poor Australian Eve has to fight her own battles, with Mama in the background more often than not ruining the whole campaign.

Actually, I think it's unfair. Either our import quotas must clamp down on these luxury lovelies, or we should have a few Israeli-trained Shadchens taking over and making things easier for the girls at home.

Variety Revue

On Sunday, June 24th., the Melbourne Synagogue Youth Intermediates held a Gala Variety Show at the Samuel Meyers Hall. A packed hall was treated to 2½ hours of first-class entertainment.

The show got off to a "Tons" by Melvyn Barnett was well received. Therese Bradley sang some well-appreciated Hebrew songs with piano-accordion accompaniment. It would be impossible to pick out individual items as being outstanding, since they were all of equal good equality. However, it would not be out of place to mention just a few of the artists to illustrate the versatility of the performances.

In the vocal section Danuta Lewner and Bette Tobias, and Lothan Prager, rendered some excellent performances. Instrumental items were well represented—Corralie Cohen and Barry Lester on the piano, Gideon Hersberg on the piano-accordion, Leon Cohen on the banjo and Kingsley Winkoff on the violin.

After interval a specially formed MSY band provided some good entertainment. Jasminne Strunin and Rita Gavenda delighted with fascinating dances. A gripping play with notable performance by David Joel was one of the highlights of the second half. Humour was provided by Corralie Cohen in her humorous monologue and Stephen Gruness with his Louis Armstrong impersonation, also Harold Cashmore, while a Yiddish version of "Sixteen

In tendering a vote of thanks, Mr. Alan Slutkin thanked the Producer, Melvyn Barnett, Peter Joseph and Malcolm Lutchner (the last-named being responsible for the stage lighting). Mr. Slutkin also mentioned the invaluable work of Mr. Harry Barnett.

"He's a jolly good fellow" they sang at Woolf Sharp's 21st birthday party given to him by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Sharp of Thornbury seen here on either side of him at Stanmark Saturday night, June 23.

Jewish Opportunity Shop

in ELWOOD, ST. KILDA

Phone LB 2980 (after next week)

Time is drawing near for the opening of our shop... the little shop that is going to do so much for the Jewish Community; helping our prestige and people by giving heavily to Jewish Causes and a fifth of all the profit to Public Hospitals, Deaf and Dumb and Blind Institutes and all the free kindergartens in the districts we serve.

We need Voluntary Helpers to collect goods — to help in the shop — to sew — to do plain machining — cutting — ironing — mending.

We would also like gentlemen to repair and make toys — to buff silver — to help in the men's wear department and to repair shoes.

We need goods of all description — clothing in any condition (we dry-clean where necessary) — rags — shoes — hats — remnants — jewellery — watches and clocks (in or out of repair) — pictures — books — magazines — (not Women's Weekly etc.) — electrical goods — china — odd saucers, plates, cups — jugs etc. — vases — kitchen utensils — cushions — lamp shades — aprons — old furniture — jams — pickles — groceries — fruit — vegetables We would appreciate offers of knitting (we supply wool).

In fact we want anything to sell: new or secondhand. No goods will be purchased or sold on commission. All goods must be donations.

The shop will be open from 10.30 a.m. — 4.30 p.m. daily for the next week, to receive donations.

WE WILL CALL FOR GOODS. PLEASE RING BL 7161, LA 4336 or LB 1861 with offers of help. All profits will be used for Jewish Charities and Public Purposes.

So please turn out your drawers and cupboards. Give us your whole-hearted support.

Comfortable win in Badminton

By FRAYDA ISAACS
With the completion of the first half of the Central Badminton Association B Grade pennant competition, AJAX has now scored three wins and three losses after defeating Brooklyn by 36 points last week.

This match resulted in some exciting rallies, three of the rubbers played to advantage, but AJAJ was never in trouble, winning one ladies doubles, three mens doubles, and two mixed doubles rubbers.

AJAX 6 rubbers 185 points defeated Brooklyn 3 rubbers 149 points.
Ladies Doubles: F. Isaacs-

C. Bernfield d. M. Lea-N. Henry 21-12; F. Isaacs-J. Komessaroff lost to M. Lea-N. Spriggs 12-21; Bernfield-Komessaroff lost to Henry-Spriggs 23-24.

Mens Doubles: J. Jacobs-M. Levy d. L. Lea-J. Porter 21-10; J. Jacobs-B. Sokol d. L. Lea-N. Henry 21-10; Levy-Sokol d. Henry-Porter 21-19.

Mixed Doubles: Isaacs-Levy d. Lea-Lea 21-8; Bernfield-Jacobs lost to Spriggs-Porter 22-23; Komessaroff-Sokol d. Henry-Henry 23-22.

No matches for two weeks during the Central Assn. championships.

GOLF: IN THE ROUGH WITH Land Wallace

"Waterbabies" Jack Seig and Myer Green each scored 28 points in Saturday's stableford swim. And such pleasant weather!

Someone was heard to remark that "Mad dogs and Cranbourne members go out in the mid-day storm".

Jack was the lucky one to win the trophy on a count-back, and can thank his steady long game for his success, especially on the home run. Myer played consistently throughout, but was let down by the putter at a vital stage late in the round. Third home was Mannie Nathan, plodding steadily but without the necessary touch on the greens.

P. Miller Stableford Event, won by Jack Seig on count-back from Myer Green, 28 points.

MEMBERS, and associates too, will be interested to know that Alan Hell has been appointed to Rosebud Golf Club as professional—and has already taken up duties there.

Alan made many friends at Cranbourne, and was popular because of his pleasing personality, patience and interest shown in your game, and mine. All of us wish you well, Alan, and trust you'll be happy in your new post.

As a final farewell, Alan asked me to print this: "I would like to express my appreciation to the members of the Club for the many kindnesses they have shown me during my stay as assistant to Mr. Pickworth."

"If I am as happy in my new position as I have been at Cranbourne, I will have no cause for complaint."

ALAN HEIL.

The Ossie Pickworth Cup is moving towards finality—but "kinds" slowly! Arthur Abrahams played sound, steady match golf to down Lou Field 3 up and 2 to play on Saturday. The golf, under the circumstances was steady, but not brilliant. However, Arthur is a great fighter and in a handicap event must always be conceded a danger. Lou was unlucky to strike Arthur in such a determined golfing mood, but was by no means disgraced.

AND—concerning the other match—well!! Where do I start? Perhaps the 18th. That's no way to talk about one of your members;

GREAT SHOWING BY ISRAEL TEAM

"Israel", represented by Victoria's Jewish players and sponsored by Maccabi Sports Club, was beaten 4-3 by "Italy", comprising Juventus players, in the International Laidlow (World) Cup soccer competition at Middle Park last Sunday.

It was easily the best showing by a Jewish soccer side for some years.

Harry Cowan and myself was all square—and on the 19th where an unfortunate controversy concerning the new rules applying to play on the green, developed. After an emergency meeting of the match committee, the matter was resolved in a decision to replay the game next Saturday.

JUNIOR PENNANT PRACTICE is well under way, and our young team should acquit themselves adequately. Led by players like Peter Herman and Neil Bromberger, the group shows talent and could develop with intelligent practice. Vice-captain Jessel Rothfield has made an excellent suggestion that the squad should meet at the driving range at night to polish up on stroke making. Sounds like a good idea.

NEXT Saturday is a big day. Three events in one, viz. the July Monthly Medal, the V.G.A. Association trophy and a special division for players on 28.

Suggestion for the club championships: — that divisions be arranged as follows:

A—Ser. to 14, B—15 to 25, C—for 26 markars. How about it Cap'n? It's not too late.

Associates: Mrs. L. Ornstein Trophy won by Mrs. B. Cohen from Mrs. F. Tucker. These two ladies were also winners of the club championships semi-finals, defeating Mrs. E. Taylor 5 & 3, and Mrs. N. Barrow 6 & 4 respectively.

The match committee certainly have been busy! They've arranged Sunday Competitions with trophies donated by the club as "carrots in front of our eyes". The events will be STARR entry, and in most cases will be bogey events.

Also, remember this folks—the last Sunday in each month will be a mixed foursomes event; so be sociable, men—bring the wives and play an occasional "foursomes". It's good for you!

Captain Harry Cohen told me that this week's V.G.A. special trophy was a "handsome mug". Now, Harry!

I start? Perhaps the 18th. That's no way to talk about one of your members;

Rosie wins at White City

SYDNEY: Veteran NSW Jewish tennis player Myer Rosenblum and former Victorian Linton Cup player P. Haele last week won 6-3, 0-6, 9-7 in the final of the veterans' over 45 double championship at White City, NSW LTA headquarters.

Rosenblum will contest the veterans' singles final next week.

PERTH CARNIVAL:-

Expecting Israelis & 100 from 4 States

"We expect representation totalling about 100 from 4 visiting States for the Perth Carnival next December-January."

WA Maccabean League of official and Carnival Manager, Mr. Joe Rosen revealed this to me during a 1-hour trunkline call on Wednesday.

Mr. Rosen admitted that he and other

Westralians were disturbed at reports hinting or suggesting that the Carnival may be a failure because of small representation from Eastern States.

J. ROSEN

He revealed that the Carnival programme had already been tentatively planned with ground and hall bookings made, and the programme to commence on December 25 and ending on January 7th.

OLYMPIC TEAM

Following negotiations with Mr. A. Masiel, Israel Olympic Committee attache, Mr. Rosen said that the Israel basketball team, if not the complete Olympic Games team, would probably be in Perth for the Carnival.

A game between Israel and a WA State team was planned, and possibly a 2nd game between Israel and a selected Australian Jewish team.

Mr. Rosen said that small teams were expected from Brisbane and Adelaide, but he was confident that Victoria's and NSW's contingents would be fairly strong.

He pointed out that in accordance with the Sports Council decision men's and women's table tennis finals, considered sporting highlights at any Carnival, had been planned for separate nights.

"Other improvements in programme planning have also been considered", said Mr. Rosen, "we have learnt from previous mistakes and shortcomings, here and in other States".

Mr. Rosen said that it was the moral duty of other States to send and subsidise the strongest and largest teams possible, pointing out that WA had made every effort to be strongly represented at recent Carnivals in other States.

He added that WA's hospitality was well-known among Jewish sportsmen and women and the general community, and that the Carnival should be one of Perth's best.

SPORTS COUNCIL

A meeting of the Australian Judaean Sports Council has been called in Perth to vote on several points to be decided, including new sports badminton and bowls, addition of extra weight divisions to boxing and wrestling, and holding of Australian Jewish tennis championships. This meeting would be attended by Mr. and Mrs. L. Rose, representing NSW, while other States would be appointing proxy delegates.

The meeting would not discuss these points, which had already been considered by the State associations, but merely vote on them, to satisfy Sports Agreement regulations.

Mr. Rosen said that on present indications it was unlikely that sufficient States would vote in favour of inclusion of bowls and badminton for the Perth Carnival.

Miss Buxton received a walk-over from Mrs. Fleitz (U.S.) in a quarter-final.

A shoulder muscle injury forced South African Abe Segal to withdraw from his singles match against Ham Richardson (U.S.), after the latter had won the first set 7-5, while Herb Flam was beaten in 4 sets by fellow-American Vic Seixas in an earlier round.

Close win over unbeaten team

Judaean Girls Sports Club last week defeated previously unbeaten University in A grade women's basketball. AJAX captain Leah Ernest was best & fairest.
