YOUNG PEOPLE MUST STAND BY THE STATE

— Hacohen says in last message in Melbourne

In concluding a dramatic address—the best he had delivered in his four weeks stay in Melbourne—to 450 young people who crowded the large Piccadilly Room of Scotts Hotel on Sunday night, Mr. Hacohen urged Jewish youth everywhere to take pride in the glorious rebirth of their people and to stand by Israel. They raised £2,200.

The attendance of the huge gathering of young men and women at the largest appeal meeting was a tribute to the Jewish and Israel consciousness of Melbourne's youth.

It was a wonderful reward for the tremendous amount of organising and hard work of the large group of young people who met many times, contacted over a thousand of their friends, and even decorated the meeting hall themselves and provided the supper.

Particular tribute must be paid to their leaders, Mr. Keith Beville and Mr. Norman Gordon.

After the gathering had seen the three latest films from Israel, Mr. Beville, in the chair, opened the meeting and thanked all for coming and those who had worked so hard to make the meeting a success.

Mr. I. Kipen, President of the State Zionist Council of Victoria and a Vice-President of the U.L.A., and Mr. E. Lamm, Director of Canvassing of the U.L.A., were present and Mr. Kipen in a short address informed the young people that the Council was soon to call on all young people to join the ranks of the Zionist Movement as direct members.

Visit to Israel

The Premier of Burma, General Bo-Ne-Win at the home of Israel's President Ben Zvi discussing Mr. Ben Zvi's book, the 'Exiled and the Redeemed' with Lt. Col. Yosef Carmel, ADC to Israel's President.

The recent visit by the General was the second of a Burmese Premier to Israel and was in line with the increasing cooperation between the two countries in many fields.

Hacohen's views

Visiting Israel Member of Knesset David Hacohen told the NSW State Zionist Council on the eve of his departure from Australia, that Israel's relations with Germany should not be dealt with on an emotional basis, but statesmanlike.

SYSTEM?

Tel Aviv: Speaking at a Mapai symposium the Prime Minister (Mr. Ben-Gurion) repeated his claim that the multi-party system was endangering the democratic regime here.

But former Minister of Posts and Telegraphs Dr. Joseph Burg (a leader of Mapai) replied that threats against the parties' existence large or small is a threat against democracy.

Mr. Hacohen, giving his private views, said he favoured the establishment of diplomatic relations between Israel and Germany.

"I resent any approach on this matter on the basis of whether we love or don't love Germany. This has nothing to do with it."

Mr. Hacohen pointed to Dr. Adenauer's friendliness and also to the growing importance of Germany in Europe.

He said that good generals did not leave any front uncovered. If people did not want to accept restitution money, see German films etc.

this was their business. But, Mr. Hacohen pointed out that many of those objecting previously had accepted restitution.

Mr. Hacohen devoted almost the whole of his farewell speech to this subject in view of the current moves in Israel.

Mr. M. Freifeld told the State Council that the appeal so far 6½ per cent higher than the last. The total now stood at £61,500.

For deal

BEN GURION

Against

MENACHEM BEGIN

CARETAKER GOVT.

On Sunday, Mr. Ben-Gurion invited three members of the Opposition, General Zionists Aguda and Mizrahi to a meeting thereby serving notice that he would turn to the Opposition parties for the formation of a caretaker Government if the leftist partners declined to conform to his demands.

On Monday night the Knesset debated a Communist motion of no-confidence in the Government. Mover Mikunis termed the deal a disgrace and charged Mr. Ben-Gurion with aligning Israel with the warmongers.

Mr. Begin followed Mikunis' line that Germany today is no different from the Nazis. He also called for a national referendum on the issue.

The General Zionist leader said his party did not want an open debate on security grounds and would explain his stand at the Knesset committee meeting.

Retire?

Mr. Ben-Gurion, staunchly insisting that the deal and others like it with the Bonn

Government are essential to Israel's economy, told his own party he would rather retire to his Negev retreat if his coalition partners failed to support him in the Knesset.

Mr. Ben-Gurion charged that the two Ahudut Ministers did not oppose the deal when it came before the Cabinet last December. But Ahudut said the party executive opposed the deal and voted against it in the Knesset security committee as soon as they became aware of it.

They said only secrecy rules prevented them from speaking out, but they felt they now were free to criticise following publication of the deal in a German newspaper, "Der Spiegel."

During the Cabinet session, Mr. Ben-Gurion reviewed the exchange of correspondence between him and the leftist coalition Ministers regarding the sale of arms to West Germany.

Mr. Ben-Gurion lashed out at Ahudut last Friday in an unprecedented interview with a local paper. He said that last December the entire Cabinet approved without opposition the sale of arms to Germany, Holland and "one other country."

Diplomatic observers believe the crisis is deeper than the arms issue. They see it as a struggle on the larger issue of Israel's ties with NATO. Mr. Ben-Gurion wants closer pro-Western line so that Israel will be able to buy modern planes and arms.

ISRAEL SEETHES ON GERMAN ARMS

(From S. ITZHAKI)

TEL AVIV: The Cabinet has decided that all Ministers and Coalition parties, in conformity with principle of collective responsibility, must support the arms deal with Germany.

A crisis is certain because Achdut Avoda has decided definitely to vote against the deal.

VOTING ON ARMS DEAL

JERUSALEM (UPI): Mr. Ben-Gurion survived his first test on the arms deal with Germany on Tuesday but another seems just ahead.

The Communist no-confidence motion was rejected by Knesset, 57 to 5 with 37 abstentions.

The Knesset Foreign Affairs Committee approved the arms deal by nine votes to six, with Mapam, Herut against and the General Zionists and Progressives with the Government.

At the beginning of the debate Mr. Ben-Gurion introduced a motion asking the Knesset to express an opinion on the arms deal.

However, in accordance with Knesset rules, the no-confidence motion took precedence.

Ben-Gurion Wins: 57-45

Jerusalem: The Knesset approved Mr. Ben-Gurion's arms deal with West Germany by 57 votes to 45 with eight abstentions.

MIGRANTS ARRIVE

During the month of June 129 migrants arrived in Australia, of whom 114 disembarked and settled in Melbourne.

61 persons arrived from Poland, 29 from Hungary, 20 from Israel, 6 from the Far East, 5 from Rumania, 3 from Egypt, 1 from Yugoslavia, and 5 from other European countries.

The total of Jewish migrants to Melbourne from January 1 to June 30 was 447.

Mapam is not pleased but of submarines and tanks for Israel."

At the last minute, Achdut Avoda's Yigal Alon warned that the deal was endangering Israel's security because now Israel is becoming a target of the powers opposing German re-armament.

Deepest divergency (tending toward hatred) has developed between Herut and General Zionists. The former accuse the latter of wanting to enter the Cabinet, meaning that a right wing opposition front will not be presented at the next elections.

Perhaps the most moving reference was Mizrahi's organ "Hatzofe" which asked Mr. Ben-Gurion: "Who appointed you to speak on behalf of the Jewish people regarding Germany that she is not Nazi?"

Tel-Aviv's German language paper Yedio Thajom revealed that Israel would gladly become a member of NATO, which would mean Germany's military ally, because this would definitely assure Israel's security.

Queen Comp. in August

As yet, it is not known how many candidates will contest the 1959 J.N.F. Queen Competition but it is hoped that in addition to WIZO and N.C.W., Pioneer Women, Ladies Mizrahi and M.D.A. will participate.

Zionist parties throughout the world are actively associated in efforts of the Jewish National Fund — with — up-to-date the only exception of Australia.

Within the framework of recent resolutions passed in Israel it is believed in J.N.F.

For Dr. Shapiro

Dr. Judah Shapiro will be guest speaker July 6 at the next meeting of the Victorian Jewish Board of Deputies at the Castlfield Cinema Interiors Road.

Prior to the meeting, he will be welcomed at a dinner arranged by the Executive Council of Australian Jewry and the Vic-

Deputies.

The Board office has been moved to 129 William Street, City (MA 3826).

MOVES ON REPARATIONS

Mr. Baron D. Snider, MLA has received the following letter from the Federal Treasurer (Mr. H. Holt): "Knowing your close interest in the question of taxation on German restitution payments, I am letting you know of further progress being made in the Treasury's examination of this problem.

"Earlier this year I had at Bonn on the German law authorizing restitution and compensation payments to those who suffered injustices under the Nazi regime.

"We have recently received copies of the relevant laws and the Commissioner of Taxation has been asked to examine the position. The translations supplied by the Bonn Embassy are voluminous and intricate but I have been advised by the Commissioner of Taxation that his branch is treating the investigation as urgent."

DR. GOLDMANN, DR. ADENAUER

BONN, (UPI & JTA): Dr. Adenauer and Finance Minister Eichel received Dr. Nahum Goldmann last week.

They dealt with problems of indemnification.

After the interview, Dr. Goldmann expressed satisfaction with the German leaders' assurances.

Dr. Adenauer later convened a conference of heads of all states in Germany to discuss with Dr. Goldmann ways and means to speed up the progress of indemnification claims. There are still 1,700,000 restitution claims by victims of Nazism still pending against West Germany.

Dr. Adenauer assured Dr. Goldmann that his country was determined to carry out the provisions of restitution agreements concerning Jewish victims of Nazism as quickly as possible.

BIALIK SCHOOL A. G. MEETING

The annual general meeting of the Bialik Hebrew School will take place on July 12. The President (Mr. J. Mercer) will not only present a report on the year's activities but will present for consideration proposals for the future of the School.

The meeting will take place at the School.

Tel Aviv: For the first time an Oriental Jew has been appointed to a diplomatic position. This is the former Iraqi Shlomo Hillel M.K. (Mapai) who has been appointed Minister of Israel in Guinea. He will leave next week for the capital of Guinea, Konakri.

United Jewish Education Board's

PROF. SHALON IN MELB.

Professor Rahel Shalon arrived in Melbourne

She has had a very successful visit in Sydney, lecturing to technical and lay audiences. Her luncheon with Sydney women just prior to her departure for Canberra and the Snowy River project was particularly outstanding.

Prof. Shalon's personality made a deep impression on Melbourne interviewers.

She is the only woman professor of Civil Engineering in the free countries.

Her speciality is cement and her monographs have brought her renown.

Prof. Shalon's visit has been made possible by the Fellowship of Jewish Architects and Engineers (Sydney) and the Jewish Technical Society (Melbourne).

Professor Shalon said the highlight of her impressions of Australia thus far is "the friendliness of the people."

Next Friday she will be tendered a Kiddush at Temple Beth Israel after the Service which has been designated "Technical Sabbath".

Between You and Me

The crisis

Mr. Ben-Gurion's "realpolitik" approach has been aired in the newest crisis of the Israel Government. The question "Do the ends justify the means?" has been put anew.

But this does not only apply to Ben-Gurion, who has failed to get arms to match the Soviet equipment of the Arabs from either the USSR or the West, and has therefore tried to achieve this support from the West through alignment with its policies.

It applies to Achdut Avoda, whose motive appears to be the election results in November. It applies to the forces behind "Der Spiegel" the German paper that sparked the Israel crisis by publishing the information a week or two ago (seeking to cause embarrassment within German politics by so doing).

The whole issue smells to high heaven, and the sincere revulsion felt by the individuals is swallowed up by the opportunism of the politicians.

Mr. Ben-Gurion said "If I hold in one scale the emotions of the Jewish people and in the other the strength of the Israeli army, the balance will fall to the latter."

Is this good enough?

Cheap

My attention has been drawn to the latest issue of "Nation" which has an article on missionary activities for Jews (especially Dr. Michelson's venture) and the costs of converting Jews.

I was intrigued by the conclusion of the author that "at £1565/5/9% per head heaps of Christians would become Jews". (Something over £30,000 were required to show 19 adult and some child conversions of Jews to Christianity!)

Marriage

HONORED

During his recent visit to Israel, the President of the Victorian Board of Deputies, Mr. Nathan Jacobson (right) was presented with a Golden Book Certificate by Dr. Solomon Lowy in Head Office of Jewish National Fund in Jerusalem.

The certificate recorded an inscription of Mr. Nathan Jacobson in the Golden Book as a sign of appreciation to his untiring and devoted services to the Zionist movement. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson were inscribed on the occasion of a "Y" luncheon.

Fruiterers: over £100

A representative of the Jewish fruiterers called in at Beth Weizmann during the week and brought the amount of over £100 in the Appeal Office.

Rebuilding scout hall

The building of the new home of 10th Caulfield Troop of Boy Scouts is proceeding apace.

The original building (a wooden structure) was destroyed by fire.

NEW "ARAB ROCKET" TEST

Cairo, (UPI): The newspaper Al Akbar said last week the United Republic has produced the Arab world's first successful intermediate-range rocket.

The newspaper said the rocket, called El Ramah (The sprinter) 301, was tested on a desert range adjoining the war plant where it was designed and built, with "excellent results".

The newspaper report gave no details of the rocket's performance.

The term "intermediate range" as applied to rockets usually means they can be used against targets up to 1,500 miles away.

MR. CALWELL AT "Y" LUNCH

The Hon. Arthur Calwell, M.H.R., Deputy Leader of the Federal Opposition, was guest speaker at the "Y" last Thursday, June 25.

Mr. Calwell, who spoke on the topic "Altering the Constitution", said our Constitution had been written in the horse-and-buggy days and could no longer keep up with the requirements of the jet age. Many of its clauses were open to different interpretations, and the judiciary could put into it any meaning they could find.

In 1957, Parliament appointed an all-party Committee, of which he was a member, for a review of the constitution. This review was now nearly complete, and many sweeping changes were scheduled, provided the necessary majority of four States out of six would be obtained.

Moving the vote of thanks, Mr. Alec Masel said many thousands of former Jewish D.P.s from Europe, now happly settled in this country, owed a debt of gratitude to Mr. Calwell for his enlightened policy, while Minister for Immigration.

The children were entertained by Mr. Carl Davis and by Ian and Ricky of Channel 7.

MR. STOCK RETURNS

Mr. S. Stock, President of the UZRO Federation, returned last Sunday from a visit to the USA, Israel and the United Kingdom.

The highlight of the trip was his attendance at the Actions Committee Meeting in Jerusalem. This was the first time he had taken part in such a meeting and it was "a great experience, especially serving on one of its sub-committees" (the Finance Committee).

He revealed that there had been initial opposition to Dr. Nahum Goldmann's first proposal, but that this had been overcome after consideration of the serious financial plight of the Jewish Agency and the fact that non-Zionist organisations like B'nai B'rith are the strongest Jewish bodies in the world.

This proposal of Dr. Goldmann's was that large organised groups in USA should be taken into the Movement and that they should be given representation at the Zionist Congresses.

MR. S. STOCK

The two other most important topics discussed at the Actions Committee were the budget and financial future of the Jewish Agency and the Shekel and the distribution of percentage mandates at Congresses of Israel USA and Jewries from other parts of the world.

Dr. Goldmann was keen to get permission to negotiate with the large groups of non-Zionists in USA, said Mr. Stock. He reasoned that many of these people contribute to funds for Israel or buying bonds. But he had not been able to induce responsibility for the projects of the Jewish Agency.

Mr. Stock also attended the Herut Hazohar conference in Tel-Aviv prior to the Actions Committee meeting. This body discussed the Herut policy for the Actions Committee conference and the party's preparations for the Knesset elections.

The main planks in the Herut platform will be economic: improvement of income from exports, attraction of capital for investment and improvement in the income of the average person in Israel.

WINNERS OF WIZO COMP.

At a grand children's party held at the Samuel Meyers on Sunday June 21, the winning contestant in the annual WIZO Hadassim Popular Child Competition was crowned by the President of WIZO State Council of Victoria, Mrs. Martha Jacobson.

The President of WIZO Hadassim Mrs. Rose Rubenstein announced the results:—Winning candidate Aviva Janover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Janover, raised the magnificent sum of £506.12.6. Second: Sharon Abramson sponsored by her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. Silverman raised £237.9.0. Third: Isaac Alexander Brott, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Brott, raised £80.16.0.

The children were entertained by Mr. Carl Davis and by Ian and Ricky of Channel 7.

MELBOURNE, FRIDAY, JULY 3rd, 1959

REAL CRISIS

The crisis in Israel is a real one. On the surface, the issue affects the supply of ammunition to West Germany. Emotions have, naturally enough, been inflamed on this issue. Mr. Menahem Begin and others have said, "Jewish people rebel at the thought of supplying arms of death to the nation that had murdered six million Jews."

Editorials in "Hatzofe" (the religious organ) and "Lamerhav" (Ahdut Avoda) have protested bitterly against the supply of arms made by the sons of victims to the sons of those who had only recently done so many millions of Jews to death.

Mr. Ben-Gurion has staked the remainder of his political career, however, not on the issue of selling arms to obtain six million Israeli pounds. Such a sum is small in the balance of Israel export-import differences. Nor is it likely that Herzl Berger's defence that the transaction is vital for Israel defence and the continued existence of the arms industry the sole or even the major reason.

The view of "diplomatic observers" that the issue runs deeper: to the whole question of alignment in the cold war, seems far more likely.

Whether or not we can agree with this decision or whether or not we can feel justification for the outrage felt by so many and their demand to rescind the deal, we must also take thought along the lines of the principle enunciated by David HaCohen in his farewell address in Sydney.

He called for "statesmanlike" views, by implication saying that we live in a cold hard world.

But this question of principle has been raised, and in the arms deal there are at least two involved. One of these principles concerns the plea of expediency. As we decry its use by those professing to be humanitarians, so we should refrain from expediency, ourselves.

There is no doubt that Ben-Gurion is a man of vision, with considerable foresight, but this need not mean he is infallible in his assessment of a situation.

It is obvious that he cannot see any other way to strengthen Israel against the threat of its enemies than by support from the West. And this means alignment.

Is he right to stake his all on this?

Mrs. Raphael, who is the wife of Mr. Chaim Raphael, First Secretary and Consul of the Legation of Israel, Sydney, opened her address by quoting Weizmann's famous saying "A State is not handed to a people on a silver salver". She then proceeded to outline the problems facing Israel today.

and cultures, this is no mean task.

In addition, there is the problem of narrowing the gap between the newcomers and the veteran settlers, said Mrs. Raphael. The new immigrants come seeking friendship, security and freedom, as well as the more material necessities of housing, clothing and education.

The task of absorbing and integrating the newcomers to Israel is made a great deal more difficult by the constant military threat and economic blockade under which the State suffers. Moreover, the tempo and timing of immigration is fixed by outside factors beyond the State's control and Israel must always be ready for surprises.

In conclusion, Mrs. Raphael called on her audience to associate themselves through the U.I.A. with "one of the greatest enterprises in the modern world." They could be amply rewarded by the "love, security and confidence which Israel will give them in return."

Before announcing the results of the appeal, Mrs. Thelma Cohen, who was in the chair, called on Mr. David HaCohen to say a few words. Mr. HaCohen, in a brief address, pictured the difficult conditions under which pioneering settlers in the Negev and other new areas lived and worked.

The Appeal realized £1,100.

SENIOR CITIZENS CENTRE GROWS

Latest reports to hand of Melbourne's meeting place for its older Jewish members denote that the Senior Citizens Centre in Punt Road, South Yarra has fulfilled a definite need in our Jewish Community.

Since its establishment last year by the National Council of Jewish Women under the capable organising hand of Mrs. Eve Sher, this centre has steadily increased in weekly attendances. So much so, that in the near future, extension of premises may be necessary.

Here in the comfortable club rooms, members find recreation in games of dominoes and cards, read journals and books from overseas, meanwhile enjoying lunch and afternoon tea.

Very soon a hot meal may also be available.

Recently, the screening of a special film from Israel delighted the 65 members present.

Other interesting programs planned by Mrs. Sher and her helpers will be the interchange of guests from non-Jewish centres, on which occasions, invitations will be extended to residents of both the Montefiores and Emmy Monash Homes. This will provide unity between the links.

AFTER 35 YEARS!

Illustrated lectures on overseas centres such as those in Israel, America, Cuba, Mexico and Europe will be of interest and an international pen club with these countries is soon to be organised.

Elderly folk should be encouraged to attend this, their own club, for here they will meet many new friends and, who knows, perhaps some very old ones, as did the two German-born ladies who met at the Centre, after having last seen each other in Germany 25 years ago.

Mrs. Eve Snider, well-known welfare worker, chose "Life begins at 80" as the title of her address to members of the Senior Citizens Centre in Punt Road, South Yarra last week.

Those present heard of the history and activities of the Hebrew Home for the Aged and Disabled in San Francisco. Mrs. Snider illustrated her talk with interesting pictures of the home, so beautifully named "Silver Avenue".

She then led the elderly people present in community singing and when they heard she would shortly leave to visit her daughter June and family in San Francisco, they wished her "Bon voyage" and they sang a tribute.

Mrs. Snider (wearing a hat) and Mrs. Eve Sher (organiser) stand at the back of this section of the large gathering present. (Leder photo)

GIRLS' COLLEGE ART EXHIBITION

Mrs. S. Herz, Headmistress of the Beth Rivkah Girls' College, 310 Glen Elira Road, Elsternwick, states that all arrangements have been made for the Art Exhibition to be held at the College premises on Saturday night, July 4th, at 8 p.m. and all day Sunday.

Must not be a historic episode

"The establishment of the State of Israel and its glorious achievements in the last 11 years must not go down in history as just an historic episode.

"It must not be allowed to fail or to break down or to be defeated by its enemies when it had already shown the way to a glorious, free and safe future for the Jewish people."

Speaking to a gathering of the Czestochower Landsmannschaft at Beth Weismann on June 17, Mr. Hacohen said that only the full and active participation of world Jewry in the great and historic venture of Israel could make the venture a success.

CONSCIENCE

The Jewish people of the Yishuv in Palestine in 1948 had declared the State and given their lives for it because they felt and understood the tragedy that had befallen the Jewish people during World War II.

They realised that only a State of their own could rehabilitate the hundreds of thousands of refugees remaining in Europe and their conscience worried them. They gave up their own prosperity and welfare in order to establish the Jewish State.

WORRY YOU?

Mr. Hacohen asked the gathering of Melbourne Jews whether their conscience worried them and whether they really were doing what they should for Israel.

He urged every Jewish family to budget for Israel as it did for its life at home and not to consider a contribution to Israel as a charitable donation but rather as an voluntary tax for the re-habilitation of the huge number of immigrants and for the future of World Jewry.

Before Mr. Hacohen spoke Mr. Leon Lederman, one of the founders of the Czestochower Landsmannschaft in Melbourne and one of Melbourne's most generous contributors to all Jewish causes told the gathering of his meeting with Czestochower Landsmen in Israel last year and of the pride he had felt at seeing the achievements of the State.

Mr. I. Gans, President, was in the chair and after Mr. Hacohen had spoken the gathering contributed £1,250 to the Appeal, a most commendable effort for a small Landsmannschaft.

Israel tour

Tel Aviv: Ida Kaminska's Warsaw Yiddish theatre is arriving in Israel in October, "Lamercha" reports on reliable authority. It adds the Polish Government has approved the trip and the theatre is also proceeding from Israel to South Africa and would come to Australia if it were invited.

The most important section of the Exhibition will be "Child's Art". This will consist of artistic attempts from Kindergarten children to pupils of Grade 5. It will include free work, Jewish themes, illustrations of stories, poems, and copies of beautiful pictures.

The parents and friends of the school were gracious enough to loan to the Exhibition Israeli arts and craft work, and a special section of religious articles will be on display also.

The Exhibition will also have a section of pottery, Hungarian Embroidery, and a selection of valuable children's books.

The guests at the opening evening will be Mr. Newman Rosenthal, of the Melbourne University, as well as Mrs. Derham, Art Teacher and expert on Child's Art, from Toorak Teachers College and Mercer House.

Mrs. Herz invites all to attend.

"Imagination"

(From S. Dizhaki)

Tel Aviv: "It is pure imagination," Israeli Government circles have replied to reports being widely spread abroad by the Egyptians that "Israel is preparing aggression against Egyptian ships in the open sea."

Meanwhile, it has been learned that Mr. Hammarskjold will arrive in Cairo at the end of the month. He will probably propose to Nasser that the Israeli goods being carried by the Inga Toft are the property of the Far Eastern countries. But Nasser has not yet replied.

Roundabout

HELPING HAND

MUST throw a banquet to Miss Hindy Kirsner who has, with considerable initiative, started the "Twenty and Over" Club to fill a very real need in our community.

This need is for a Club where adults, both men and women, can come without a partner (or with if they prefer it) to dance, make new friends and meet people.

Very often, people over twenty stay home because they haven't a partner.... If they do that, how do they meet people and acquire partners?.... That has been quite a social problem.

So, for the lonely and not-so-lonely, Miss Kirsner has started her Club, backed by the Judaean League to encourage her, on Tuesday nights at the New Pavilion, 97 Alma Road, St. Kilda. There the 20's to 35's can get together for a charge of 2/6 for dancing and supper. Dress is informal and the atmosphere were welcoming.

AT the Opening Night over 80 young adults were present, and — believe it or not! — more men than women turned up.

So don't be lonely any more. The "Twenty and Over" Social Club is waiting to meet you...

Congratulations, Hindy Kirsner, for a fine idea, ably executed!

Loneliness is one of the great causes of unhappiness and probably one of the chief causes of mental illness in our time. Anyone who will find means to break down the barriers that keep people apart, is doing a fine job.

It's now up to the stay-at-homes:—the door is wide open to welcome you!

OSTRACISM ? OSTRICHISM !

ALACK of the sense of the ridiculous is usually a feature of all dictatorships.

The posturings of Mussolini, the goose-stepping or the Chaplinesque antics of Hitler, the bemuddled gold uniforms and jewel-encrusted daggers of Goering are only possible from people who have no gift of laughing at themselves....

Slightly different, but no less laughable, is the act of the Egyptian Customs and Censorship Department in regard to an exhibition of British books held in Cairo and Alexandria last month.

The Customs rigorously examined every book and passed almost everything except a handful including a book by Sir John Glubb and one on oil technology in Russia.

But before permitting an illuminated globe to be passed, they carefully and most seriously obscured the name of Israel with a piece of sticky-tape.

This, no doubt, seemed like a great military victory!

HIS LIFE WORK !

A BOOK has been published in England last month and will be available here within a few weeks, the royalties from which will go to a fund set up to help survivors from the Auschwitz Camp.

Rudolph Hoess, Commandant of Auschwitz, was condemned to death at the Nuremberg Trials. In the interim period between sentence and execution he decided to write his memoirs — which he did sanctimoniously.

In writing "...a detailed and accurate report on his life's work" he has produced a document as horrifying as any to come out of the last war.

Lord Russell of Liverpool has written the foreword and testifies to the book's authenticity.

This story of the man who

SOUL EROSION

THE story of the Beast of Auschwitz and evidence of renewed efforts by Messrs Eric Butler and De Louth (what an apt name for the man, incidentally, if properly pronounced!) to poison the minds of people with their anti-Semitic ravings, brings to mind their pet subject of how many Jews were murdered by the Nazis.

Not that the term "murder" is ever used by them; from memory I believe they call it "elimination". They are desperately trying, by means of mathematical equations, to prove that at most two to three million Jews were "eliminated", not six million as official Nuremberg trial records show — the Nazis conscientiously kept complete records of all their bestialities.

In this connection let me quote from a letter by the Secretary of the South African Jewish Board of Deputies which was published in the largest Africander newspaper in answer to similar vicious outpourings by Mr. Butler and Mr. De Louth's counterparts in South Africa.

"....It is shocking that the human conscience should be so eroded that some people can feel that, if they can reduce the total of Jewish murdered by a million or two, they are exculpating Hitler and his henchmen."

Lord Russell of Liverpool has written the foreword and testifies to the book's authenticity.

I met Shalom Aleichem's sister

By DI KOLKER

It was late 1944. I was in Auckland, New Zealand, secretary to that amazing woman emissary for the Palestine Foundation Fund, Mrs. Archibald Silverman of the U.S.A.

It was indeed an adventure, my first visit to New Zealand. It brought me many surprises, not the least of which was being called by name by one woman, and on showing my surprise, being told she had last seen me at my home in London, a mere forty years before!

She had been contemporary of my youngest sister, I had just been the elder sister helping with afternoon tea.

There were several such surprises, in this far-flung part of the world.

However, we were on an Appeal Tour, and time was very limited. Certainly any time that I had to myself was indeed limited.

Then while chatting, a member of the community told me that a sister of Shalom Aleichem lived in Auckland.

New Zealand is certainly a place where anything might happen, so I looked a bit askance, but my news-seeking nose began to itch with the suggestion of a scent.

I managed to sneak some little time off, and wended my way to a dirty little second-hand shop in one of the outer city streets.

It was smelly and grubby, not at all inviting, and a short bent little woman, with grizzled grey hair, large hands with enlarged joints, a broad brow lined as though often pain-wracked, asked me in a harsh voice with a definitely American accent, what I wanted.

Before I spoke however, I looked over her head at the portrait immediately above her on the wall of the shop, one of those familiar portraits of the late Shalom Aleichem.

SICK

The similarity between the two faces was strikingly obvious. She spoke first "Yes, it's true, I suppose someone told you, Shalom Aleichem was my brother."

I was very pressed for time, she was not eager to talk, but I gathered that she'd had a hard life, had been very sick and suffered great pain. I had to leave, but promised if ever I came back again, I'd call on her.

She smiled, and said, "I am Jewish you know." Well I knew that.

From time to time she would be approached by various members of the Community for a donation. Nobody knew the extent of her possessions and guesswork was rare. However, she herself did not mix freely or otherwise with the community as such.

Late in 1949 I again went to New Zealand on Hebrew University work. In Auckland, she was my first call. She was if possible more garrulous about the hands more bent, more lined and very obviously in great pain.

The shop was more smelly. I tried to get her out with me for a cup of tea, she couldn't do that but offered me one there. This I simply had to refuse, but we managed to talk a little.

RETICENT

She was not a very communicative person, most reticent about her life. I have a feeling she'd married out and felt ostracised.

The only Jewish organisation with which she was acquainted was the J.N.F., those J.N.F. boys and girls certainly do their work wonderfully well, and I always congratulate them on their efforts, they deserve results. I wanted to find out whether she spoke Yiddish. She hedged.

Her only real topic of conversation was her illness, the pain was always suffering, her hard life and her isolation, I just mentioned Hebrew University to her, and all the barriers of suspicion became apparent.

When I left her, I bade her farewell and hoped I would see her on my next visit. She smiled wryly, thanked me for coming to see her, and said "Don't worry, if I have anything to leave I'll leave it to Jewish causes."

When I went to New Zealand again in 1958, I asked after her. She had passed on, and had kept her word. She'd left her belongings worth about £700 to the J.N.F. Proud of her brother, away from Jewishness as she so obviously was, her life died with her. From Russia to America, from America to New Zealand, she was Shalom Aleichem's sister. I had at least had the "schutz" to meet her. May her spirit rest in peace.

Letter to the Editor BRISBANE EDUCATION

Dear Sir,

May I express some comments on your report of Rabbi Dr. Goldstein's remarks about Jewish Education in smaller Communities (AJN 29/5/59).

I cannot claim to speak on behalf of the Perth or Adelaide Communities, but wish to point out on behalf of the Brisbane United Education Board that the "Sunday School System", as Rabbi Goldstein calls it, has never been accepted by our Community as an ideal one, but seems to be the only workable system under the circumstances.

The much desired alternative would be a Jewish Day School which, unfortunately, at the moment is quite beyond the reach of our 1600 people.

May we remind your readers that Melbourne started its Day School when there were approx. 25,000 Jews living in Melbourne, and that Sydney to-day with more than 25,000 Jews has not yet achieved a full Jewish Day School.

It should also be pointed out that Mount Scopus in Melbourne can only maintain itself with the far-reaching support of the Claims Conference, a support that has been consistently denied to Brisbane claims for some small help in our educational programme.

As it is, our Education Board has, for some years past, provided much more than only Sunday School tuition. At the moment we have I.A. classes on two weekday afternoons, and out of the 100 children who attend on Sundays, close to 50 come again to these weekday afternoon classes.

(Incidentally, our enrolment

Our Community has strained its resources to the utmost and has brought out recently a Hebrew teacher from Israel with the excellent support of the Zionist Federation. It considers that it is doing its part in providing Jewish children with such education as appears practicable under the circumstances.

If Australian Jewish leaders and, indeed, leading personalities from overseas would help us in these endeavours to maintain our educational efforts and would support our case at the Claims Conference, then, perhaps, we might make further headway and improve our facilities which, we do say with all due respect, are even now better than no education at all.

Yours faithfully,
Rabbi ALFRED FABIAN,
Headmaster, United Board of Hebrew Education.

NO RESPONSE TO PLEA FOR JEWS

MELBOURNE: There had been no response to a letter which the Jewish Council had sent to the Soviet Ambassador in London some eight months ago, pleading for more cultural freedom for Soviet Jewry.

This was revealed by the Council's President (Mr. Sam Cohen, B.A., LL.M.) when he moved the adoption of the 17th Annual Report at the annual general meeting held last week.

The report discloses for the first time that such a letter was sent and cites its full text.

Mr. Cohen told the more than 60 members attending the meeting that despite communal criticism at the Council's apparent failure to protest against the treatment of Jews in the Soviet Union, the Executive had—rightly or wrongly, but after much deliberation—decided not to publicise the letter until now, lest it prejudice its effect.

He said that the purpose of the letter had been to try to help Jews in the Soviet Union and as long as there was any chance of a favourable response, publication of the letter would have jeopardised such success, as it might then have been construed by its recipients as an attempt at making political propaganda.

Reviewing other phases of the year's work, Mr. Cohen declared that the Jewish Council was the only Jewish organisation in Australia which had voiced a protest against the welcome extended to Baron Krupp in Australia and likewise the only body to protest against Mr. Khrushchev's toast to Krupp at Leipzig.

During the debate of the annual report, Mr. Cohen was unable to pinpoint the obstacles which prevented the Council from regaining affiliation with the Board of Deputies. However, Mr. Cohen and other members of the Executive denied that the Council would be able to work at this stage more effectively from within the Board.

Instead, they maintained, the only result would be that the vital work of combating antisemitism would not be carried out either inside or outside the Board of Deputies.

On the financial side it was claimed that the last annual dinner had been financially the most successful yet.

Receipts for the year had totalled £3059 as against an expenditure of £3110. Although a deficit of some £51 was nothing much to worry about as such, the really unsatisfactory aspect of the finances was that in case income had been several thousand pounds higher, the Council would undoubtedly have found ample scope to do that much more useful work.

Annual elections resulted: President: Mr. Sam Cohen, Vice Presidents: Mr. S.

Goldblum and Mr. N. Staby, Hon. Treasurer: Mr. T. Trevaks, Assistant Hon. Treasurer: Mr. L. Jedwab, Elected Members to the Executive: M. Marks and E. Kempfer.

After the conclusion of the official business, the meeting was addressed by Mr. Don McSweeney, Organising Secretary of the Clothing Trades Union.

The guest speaker described briefly his impressions gained during his recent tour of Europe, which included visits to East and West Berlin as well as attendance at international peace conferences in Vienna and Stockholm and attendance at the Labour Party Conference at Scarborough.

Mr. McSweeney considered the German people to be "basically friendly—if left alone, like other people." But he described Berlin today as "a hotbed of intrigue and corruption".

His trip had served to make him see the danger of another war more clearly. He was now forced to agree with Bertrand Russell that mankind had only a fifty-fifty chance of survival, but this was no justification for a defeatist attitude.

Use of Yiddish by delegates

MELBOURNE: The use of Yiddish at the Board of Deputies by delegates who are capable of expressing themselves in English is criticised in a motion passed recently by the Victorian Jewish Exservicemen's Association and conveyed to the Board.

Ex-servicemen say they are "perturbed" by the extent to which Yiddish is used in Board debates, as it restricts their own choice of delegates to those few who are capable of following the debate in Yiddish.

The Association believes that as far as possible debates should be conducted in English and that only those delegates really incapable of speaking English should be given the opportunity to address the Board in Yiddish.

The letter conveying the motion was returned by the Acting Chairman of the Board (Mr. A. Bloch) who suggested that the Association should modify its motion, since it cast reflections on the chairmanship of the Board. Endeavours had always been made to translate the substance of Yiddish speeches for the benefit of other delegates.

REJECTED

Mr. Bloch's reply was indignantly rejected by V.A.J.E.X., who sent a renewed demand to the Board that the letter should be received among the Board's correspondence.

This correspondence was read out and adopted at the last meeting of the Board of Deputies, but no further action ensued on this matter, except that Mr. A. Ruskin congratulated Mr. Sperling for speaking in English despite his reputation as an outstanding speaker in Yiddish.

Highlight of the meeting was an address by the President of the Board (Mr. N. Jacobson) on his recent trip overseas.

In addition to a confidential report on the political and economic situation as seen by Israeli authorities, Mr. Jacobson dwelt on matters already published in his press interview in these columns on June 19.

Mr. A. J. Blashki was elected Hon. Treasurer of the Board, following the recent resignation of Mr. G. Casper from that position.

NEW ADDRESS

The Acting President of the Board (Mr. Davis) announced the resignation of the Board's Executive Director (Mr. S. Shifrin), as from the end of the financial year and the shifting of the Board's offices to its new address at 128 William St., opposite the Hotel Mezines. The Board's new telephone number is MA 3820.

Mr. David said that for the first time in its history the

Mt. Scopus Column

NEXT Tuesday evening the great Tenth Annual Ball of the College will take place at the Royale Ballroom. In a never-to-be-forgotten setting there will be congregated this year's lovely debutantes, their handsome swains, the bubbling youth of this go-ahead community, the comely matrons, and the leaders of Jewry.

Perfect music, tempting food, gracious setting, surprise planning all will combine to make every guest feel that this Ball will set the standard for all future Balls.

Behind every campaign is a general. Behind every successful man is a woman. Behind this Ball's radiant success is Ray Rose, petite queen of next Tuesday's gaiety who has discarded the shackles of being Vice-President Gerald's slipper-parker to reign in her own right.

She has amply rewarded the discerning voters who chose her as Ball President.

The Departmental chiefs are at concert pitch. So are the composers, the choreographers, the debs, the entrepreneurs, the decorators, the caterers. Ray's devotion to detail is perhaps one of her secrets to success. Good accessories make good dressing. Excellent detail makes outstanding Balls.

WHEN Henry the Fifth referred to "We few, we happy few, we band of brothers" he was astute enough to name the few he referred to. Lacking the wisdom of Henry, this columnist last week wrote with praise of a "dedicated few" in connection with a worth-while communal effort. But no names followed the tribute. It has since been pointed out, if vitriolic wrath conveyed in the language of Billingsgate can be called pointing out, that to omit names in a Koved list ranks in certain portions of this community with such outré behaviour as eating herring with white bread, answering an invitation promptly, arriving on time at a meeting, donating anonymously, electing less than seven Vice-Presidents, having an appeal with less than 53 patrons or without an overseas speaker or not complaining about one's seat at a public function.

How proud Ray Rose looks among her eight debs, pictured on this page as they relax after a rehearsal. And what elegance they will impart to the Ball as they make their bows squared by ex-students and friends. Aviva Kanatepsky will be partnered by Robert Jacobson; Carmela Kantor by Sam Frydman; Sandra Sholem by David Muskin; Emilie Lowenstein by Lionel Elbaum; Josephine Morris by David Joel; Pauline Serry by Brian Forshaw; Judy Saks by David Greenberg; and Emma Lubel by Joseph Feldman. Straus' Graduation Waltz would be a fitting musical honour for these attractive young people.

Arrangements have been made to receive last-minute bookings for the Ball on Sunday. We suggest you ring Ex-President of last year's Ball Claire Goldenberg for your booking — phone LA 6426. After that tables will be allotted.

WE have mentioned the Ex-Students Association before. Latest news of their doings is the challenge these Old Collegians have issued to the school to play a challenge match in hockey and football in August.

If you are an ex-Scopian and want to join in the hockey fun ring Denise Goulburn (LB 2183) while football possibles should contact Raymond Gilbert (phone LB 2977). It is hoped that lots of parents and supporters will take a picnic to the school on the day and cheer the teams. The matches appeal as a grand idea full of wonderful possibilities.

Another Scopus Ball is planned during this season — perhaps a vernal ball. The Ex-Students Association are planning to hold a sumptuous Ball later this year. They have many ideas for enjoyment. We applaud their enthusiasm and know they will be set a standard from next Tuesday's revelry by night.

When this association really gets going Leon Lasky will certainly be the managing director of a big business with many departments in a great Festival Hall of Youth on Burwood Road.

The children also sang various traditional songs.

Rabbi Kaplinsky, of Hascola Talmud Torah, then addressed the guests, urging each parent to enrol his child in the Yeshivah College.

ART — BOUTIQUE

The white-clad dancers will join with the teen-agers and all will vote the 10th Ball a truly memorable Festival of joy and celebration. Perhaps more than one will silently repeat the time-honoured benediction that ends ... "and hast enabled us to reach this season."

TOUGH FOR HAKOAH

By KURT DEFRIS

Hakoah scored a hard-fought 2-1 State League soccer win over Geelong last Saturday to maintain 4th place on the league ladder.

The trip to Geelong was a tough proposition for the Blues and the victory by the odd goal out of 3 was well earned.

Play in the first half was open and swung from one end of the ground to the other and shots from the long range made the task of the goalkeepers easy.

About the middle of the first half, Hakoah gained ground, 2 corners and Morris, in his first appearance with the firsts, hit the crossbar, also served well to Meier who missed good opportunities.

PENALTY MISSED

The next move was a perfect pass from Reid to Hans Petersen who passed the Geelong defence but a defender returning handled the ball resulting in a penalty. Meier ballooned the ball over the bar.

Geelong was more lucky when Windt converted with a close range kick 2 minutes before half-time.

On resumption, Hakoah put everything into the game. Morris, most dangerous forward, was the driving force.

Hakoah equalised in the 57th minute when a combined inside attack movement gave Meier the equaliser.

Hakoah got the lead when Thomas passed six Geelong players and his perfect pass was converted by Blakley to a "must goal".

Morris was Hakoah's best forward; Hakoah's defence Manning, Alexander, Hartley gave the speedy Geelong forwards little chance to score.

Hakoah will have a torrid

New players

Two recently-arrived players will make their first appearance with Hakoah soccer teams this or next weekend. The players are Tony Vilk, centre-forward from AJAX, Amsterdam, and Alfred Dorn, 1st division right winger from Saarland.

No. 1 supporter

This is one of the best-known faces among soccer enthusiasts in Melbourne. It belongs to Hakoah Vice-President C. M. Hay, who has worked for Hakoah for many years but has not enjoyed the best of health lately. Mr. K. Dofris last week expressed his and other soccer enthusiasts' hopes that Mr. Hay would continue with his efforts for Hakoah.

RESERVES DRAW

Hakoah reserve team was unlucky to draw 1-1 as the penalty scored by Geelong few minutes before the final whistle robbed them of one point.

The goal was scored by Hankinson. Best players: Finlay, Davis, Fynt and Slade.

Hakoah reserves v. Slavia res., 1 p.m. Slavia ground, Port Melbourne.

"FIRM" HELPS SOUTH TO VICTORY

South Judaeans scored a long-overdue win in special B men's pennant tennis last Saturday, beating equal second team Fitzroy by 1 set with rubbers even at 2-all.

The "big firm," Harry Ernest (captain) and Stan Kennett both scored straight sets wins and, together with Ivan Saffer who saved a set, contributed to South's victory.

Ernest produced his most positive play for the season to beat Fitzroy captain Terry Barker 6-1, 6-1.

Saffer dropped the first set to Father Gerry Sullivan, one of the most solid players in the grade, but equalised by winning the second.

Saffer turned on superlative play to lead 3-1 with game-point for 4-1 but, with the Fitzroy left-hander plugging away and fearlessly going for his shots, collapsed to lose 4-6.

Harry Stanton proved no match for Fitzroy's No. 1, Norm. Grills, whom he beat last season.

Kennett started his match against No. 2 player Barry O'Reilly, having to win in straight sets to give South victory by the odd set.

The South Judaeans gave his opponent little chance to settle down and, hustling O'Reilly with sound all-court play especially a good-length backhand, won by the required margin.

This was the first time this season Ernest and Kennett had won their rubbers on the same day.

GOOD START

South's second men's team scored its 4th successive win, beating Glen Iris by a set in the first of the B grade doubles rounds.

Glen Iris had previously beaten South in the singles.

The South pairs — Sluice-Carrick and Komesaroff-Cohn — gained a handy 2-0 lead, winning the first two rubbers, and Komesaroff-Cohn clinched the issue by taking a set in their 2nd rubber.

South's senior women's team led Elsternwick by 2 rubbers to love, but still lost when its No. 3 and 4 players dropped two rubbers without taking a set.

Mesdames Sacks and Cohen won well in this team, but other players in this and other South teams have again shown that it is impossible to produce winning matchplay without solid practice.

The club's No. 1 special C team continued on its winning way with a 4-0 win over Geelong, and the D side also won well, by the same margin.

With the end of the singles half of the season, a review of the team's standings and leading players will be featured next week.

AJAX UNTRROUBLED BY EAST MALVERN

By GARY HARTMANN

AJAX first eighteen had little trouble in accounting for East Melbourne, in their D grade amateur football fixture, at the Blessington Street Reserve last Saturday.

Team B: Davis, H. Yaffe, Efron, H.B.: D. Merkel (c), Kalman, Ravech, C. Burstin, Woolf, T. Cohen, H.F. Smorgan, R. Merkel, D. Cohen (v-c). F.: Rosenberg, A. Seefeld, Lebransky. Followers: Bridgeman, Roam, Shostak. Reserves: Korman, Simon.

Having first use of the wind, East Malvern commenced smartly but AJAX steadied. 1st Quarter: East Malvern 1.2.8 v. AJAX 0.3.3.

The second quarter saw the overall superiority of the AJAX side as the visitors were held scoreless. Half-time: AJAX 6.9.45 v. East Malvern 1.2.8.

After the interval, the Jewish side continued to outplay East Malvern and by three-quarter time had gained a 43 points lead. 3rd Quarter: AJAX 8.12.60 v. East Malvern 2.5.17.

In the last quarter, East Malvern tried vainly to get back into the game. Final scores: AJAX (I) 9.19.73 d. East Malvern 4.6.30.

Goalkeepers: Bridgeman (2), Shostak (2), D. Cohen (2), and Lebransky, Smorog and R. Merkel (1 each). Best players: Bridgeman, Kaiman, D. Merkel, Woolf, T. Cohen, D. Cohen.

Saturday's match will be against Fairfield at home (Blessington Street Oval, rear Luna Park) commencing at 2.15 p.m.

Disappoint

After showing improved form over the past few weeks, AJAX seconds failed to score against top team Old Paradians at Old Scotch Oval last Saturday.

Team: B: Juno, D. Rubenstein (c), S. Yaffe, H.B.: Light, Castan, D. Seefeld, C. Gold, Arinstein, Suss, H.L.: Epstein, Weissman, Brott, F. Waisberg, Linda. Followers: Caplan, Goldberg, Layton.

Although AJAX's defense played well early, the strong attacking of Old Paradians side caused the Jewish side to wilt under the pressure.

Final scores: Old Paradians 17.22 d. AJAX 0.0. Best players: D. Rubenstein, Linda, Juno.

Saturday's match will be against Old Xaverians at home (Blessington Street Oval, rear Luna Park), commencing at 12 noon.

However it is worthwhile mentioning that our pennant team won their match 3-2.

GOLF

IN THE ROUGH

With Nat Hartmann

In last Saturday's stableford competition, Morrie Kaphash, one of the players in our victorious pennant team, handled the gusty conditions extremely well to win the A div. with 38 pts.

I did mention that stableford was the long marker's dream. Myer Komesaroff proved this by scoring 43 pts. to win the B div. Quite a few members were so pleased with Tom Kennedy's 37 points, that they presented him with a dozen golf balls or more.

SUNDAY'S mixed foursomes was played in beautiful weather with beautiful partners and produced some beautiful golf.

In a photo finish, Mr. and Mrs. D. McDonald were the victors with a 69 from Mr. and Mrs. J. Selig 70 and Mr. M. Goldberg and Mrs. A. Tait also a 70. There were also a few 72's.

We had as opponents Keith Efron and his charming wife, and I began to wonder whether I was playing golf or watching a rehearsal for a love scene in a film, as each time his wife dropped a putt, Keith would dash over and shower her with kisses.

If Michael Pate had seen him, I am sure he would have grabbed Keith as the lover boy in his film.

My partner, Hinda Kiraner, although playing beautiful golf, threw away any chance we had of winning because I saw her look at Keith's performance, then she took a look at me and reading my mind, deliberately missed 15 putts.

DREAMED the other night that I hit a ball 300 yds. over the heads of the players in front and jumped up in bed yelling "Fore". My wife, who loves Auction Sales, "purely from habit" sang out four and six.

Only a week to go (July 11) for our Dinner Dance there may still be a few tickets left; hang the expense! Don't miss this night!

ALWAYS getting questions on golf rules. One member asked me, what should I do if I accidentally hit another player's ball 200 yds. on to the green. My answer was: Give him a new ball from your bag, you may never hit another shot like that for the rest of your life.

Next Saturday, monthly medal A and B divisions and a great opportunity to prepare for the coming championships, this being played from the back tees.

Associates: Last Thursday's conditions were so bad that very few finished the course and the scores do not warrant publication.

However it is worthwhile mentioning that our pennant team won their match 3-2.

Mrs. B. Kelly winning 1 up, Mrs. M. Hall won 6 and 5 and Miss J. Laughton won 3 and 2.

Only criterion—

to be a Jew

"Israel was taking in every Jew who needed to come regardless of health, age or economic circumstances."

"Unlike Australia and other countries which had a selective immigration Israel had opened its doors to every Jew. This was causing Israel more than normal hardship as thousands of the immigrants had to be given long and extensive hospital and convalescence treatment and others were put on the old age pension the minute they arrived in the country."

Mr. Hacohen said this in the course of describing Israel's efforts for the million immigrants they had taken in to a gathering of the Zellshower Landsmannschaft at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Meed, on June 17.

Mr. Meed is a well known worker and leader in the community who is at present the acting President of the Landsmannschaft in the absence overseas of its President, Mr. M. Roth.

The meeting was one of the best attended of the Appeal.

After Mr. Hacohen had given his address the appeal resulted in an immediate contribution of £2,200 and the committee undertook to canvass members not present to ensure that their result would be at least £3,000.

The acting Premier of Victoria (Mr. Ryiah) was present at the marriage last Sunday of Claire, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Orson, of New York, with Mr. Baron Snider MLA for St. Kilda.

The ceremony took place before a small family gathering at the home of Judge and Mrs. Rapke, Dandenong Rd., Windsor and the Rev. E. Kowadio of St. Kilda Synagogue officiated. Uteferers were Mrs. Rapke and Mr. N. Belcher (who had been asked by Mr. and Mrs. Orson in New York to do so) and Mr. L. S. Snider and Mrs. E. Snider.

For the ceremony, Mrs. Snider wore a sheath frock of beige ribbon lace with a satin cummerbund. She also wore a beige velvet bandeau swathed in veiling.

The bridegroom's uncle and aunt Mr. L. S. Snider MLC and Mrs. Snider flew from Sydney for the occasion.

Mr. Snider, who is the only son of Mrs. Eve Snider and the late Mr. Mendel Snider, first met his bride overseas earlier this year when he attended a meeting of the general council of the Commonwealth Parliamentarians Association in Barbados.

The "Incidentals", newest group in N.C.J.W., will cater for younger marrieds. Formed recently under the chairmanship of Pauline Green of Caulfield, this group has a strong committee which will assess where their services will be most required in communal work. Several members will attend the Social Services Conference as observers, and they have readily consented to organize the Art Stall at the N.C.J.W. Market Fair on July 20 and 21.

LADIES' Mizrahi Yavneh will hold a "Brains Trust" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Kantor, 139 Kooyong Road, Caulfield, on Sunday evening July 12. The panel includes Dr. B. Stoll, Mr. A. Bloch, Dr. F. Knopfelmacher and Rabbi G. Schlesinger.

Sam Schwartz, only son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Schwartz, was Barmitzvah at Beth Nachman Synagogue, Kew, last Saturday. The celebration took place at Kreutzer's No. 8 Dickens St., Elwood. (Cyllich photo)

Graeme, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Samuel, celebrated his Barmitzvah on June 12. In honour of the occasion his parents entertained relatives and friends at their Toorak home. Guests responded generously to the Simchat appeal, made by Rabbi Sanger and Cantor Schwartz, "Kitties" from the card players provided sufficient to inscribe Graeme as a Patron of Ahuzat Yehudim, Australian WIZO's project in Israel. Mrs. Samuel as a Vice-President of WIZO Darom requested that these inscriptions go through her Group.

"Town Tattle"

WE stabled our horse in front of South Pacific, and blew our jets with the corduroy pants, duffle coat, and desert boot set.... It was real nervous man! The place was a real antisville... Are you getting the beat? Well we did while we were beating the bugs down at the Bronx Club on Sunday 21st... Wow man, it was real cool....

T.V.-viewers will be interested to watch Channel 9 on Saturday July 4 at 9.30 p.m. when talented cellist Leon Segal will appear on "Swallows Spectacular". He will play Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Song".

Peter Bedwell, winner of the Myer Doll Pageant, was very impressed with the dressed dolls shown to him, made by members of the National Council of Jewish Women Younger Set, at the last doll dressmaking evening held at the home of Beverley Komessroff, 376 Inkerman Road, East St. Kilda. These dolls are being made for the National Council of Jewish Women Fair, to be held at the Melbourne Town Hall in July. There will be another meeting at Beverley's place on Monday evening, July 6, 8 p.m., and all interested are invited.

Mr. Leonard Stanton was recently presented with a beautiful Kiddush cup by the National Council of Jewish Women, in gratitude for his services as Honorary Auditor to this organisation over an extensive period.

DURING her brief visit to Melbourne, Professor Shalon will address a gathering jointly arranged by the Australian Federation of WIZO and the WIZO State Council of Victoria on Tuesday morning, July 7, at 10.30 a.m. at Beth Weizmann. All welcome.

IT'S the annual big day for AJAX Football Club this Sunday, with the North-South match at Warrigal Park, Heidelberg in the afternoon, followed by what should be a very popular Dance at Maison de Luxe, Elwood, the same night. There'll be Reno Gilanti's Latin-American Band, entertainment, supper, etc. For more details see page 14.

MIZRACHI AVIV'S "Japanese Night" at Gini and Hans Bachrach's home last Sunday was a success. The girls were dressed in Japanese garb, as were some of their escorts.

Japanese music was a background to the arrangements, which included menus in romanized Japanese. The dishes were Japanese (sukiyaki, rice etc.) and the decorations were Japanese.

SPORTS NEWS and VIEWS

By Hans Licht

T.T. TEST !

THE Victorian table tennis titles at the Albert Park VTTA headquarters July 17-24 will have more-than-usual importance to Hakoah Table Tennis Club and its players.

There have been suggestions of late that Hakoah, despite its star-studded array, is experiencing a slump.

Team and individual performances do not support this claim, but the fact remains that there is very little club "spirit" and activity in Hakoah, apart from the actual playing — mainly competitive — of the report.

Senior players must shoulder the blame for this as they have repeatedly refused to play their part in administering the club's affairs, leaving this to one or two stalwarts.

JUST TALK

THERE seems to be much talk and little else, here and interstate, on the likely fund-raising measures to be taken towards sending an Australian team to the 1961 Maccabiah.

Everyone is waiting for everyone else to make a move, and there's little forthcoming apart from words and "commendations".

It will be a case of "wait-and-see" whether a team will leave these shores in 1961.

Australia's much publicised "good name in Israel" may not be quite so popular once it becomes known over there just why there will be no team in two years' time.

'Cos that's what we reckon!

N.S.W. MOVE

THE Jewish Amateur Sports Association (JASA), which is the NSW counterpart to AJAX, was recently admitted as direct constituent of the NSW Jewish Board of Deputies.

Deputies' decision over there was made at recent meeting which amended the Board constitution accordingly.

JASA—as AJAX through the Judaean League—was previously represented through the NSW Jewish War Memorial.

It's a good move and should be emulated here!

After all, we reckon there's a great number of Board constituents here with less than AJASA's 8,900 total membership.

NO CHANGE ?

WE'RE a bit cautious these days about tipping, but suggest that most of the old crew will be back "in power" when (AND IF) the Judaean League elections finally take place.

Same as we don't think that the administration of League property will improve, after seeing the way Alma Rd. Pavilion was man-handled at function held there this week.

Judging by the number of butts and ashes ground into the polished floor, there must have been a very nervous crowd there!

Hakoah seeds in titles

Suzy Javor heads the women's singles seedings for the Victorian table tennis championships to be played at VTTA Albert Park headquarters July 17-24.

Mrs. Javor is present titleholder of the National and State singles titles, captains Hakoah A grade team and is undefeated in singles in Australia for over two years.

Hakoah players Tom Kurtak and John Marton are seeded 5th and 7th respectively for the Victorian men's single table tennis title.

Other seeded Hakoah players are: Women's singles L. Cohen 8th, men's doubles Kurtak-Marton 4th, women's doubles Javor-O'Brien 1st, Cohen-Prowse 3rd. Mixed doubles Maracz-Javor 3rd. Junior girls L. Cohen 1.

HARD WIN

Mrs. Javor scored a hard-fought 3-1 victory over Norma Buckley in the women's singles final at Traralgon.

Mrs. Javor and husband Karoly won the mixed doubles and Javor, State coach, was runner-up in the men's singles to Sokolowski.

Sokolowski won over Kurtak 25-23 in the fifth game of the men's singles final of the annual Sandringham open tournament, and defeated Barney Peters in the semi-final.

Sokolowski-Javor beat Kurtak-Marton 3-1 in the men's doubles final.

RESULTS

Hakoah A men's d. St. Kilda Cricket 8-3 (Peters 3, Kurtak 3, Balint 1, doubles). Hakoah-AJAX A men's lost to Colts 5-6 (Marton, Kramer, L. Javor). Hakoah women's A d. Crescent 9-2 (Javor 3, Cohen 3, Saville 1, doubles). Melb.-Hak. women's A d. Warran 11-0. Melb.-Hak. d. University 7-4. Melb.-Hak. women's B d. Headquarters 7-4. Hakoah men's C d. University 8-3 Kahan 3, Nankin 3, Olfers 8. Hakoah men's D d. University 10-1 (Eckhaus 3, A. Hain 3, Lindell 2, doubles).

UNBEATEN IN HOCKEY

AJAX Women's hockey team reached the halfway mark on Saturday with a fine 7-4 win over Camberwell at Royal Park, thus completing a half-season without defeat for the Jewish team.

The team still showed some signs of restlessness and, as a result, came very close to losing the match at one stage.

Scoring opened in the first few minutes of play when AJAS scored through captain, left inner Gill Cohen, followed by goals from J. Saks, E. Yaffe and another from Gill Cohen, making the score at half time 4-1 in favour of AJAS.

Play, settled down in the second half and O'well really availed pressure and converted three quick goals putting them only 1 goal behind AJAS.

The Jewish girls rallied again at this stage of the game and scored twice more for the final score of 7-4.

Goalscorers: G. Cohen 4, E. Yaffe 2, J. Saks 1.

The high scoring against AJAS indicates the weakness of the AJAS team.

BASKETBALL GIRLS BETTER

By FAY GOLDBERG

In women's basketball last Saturday AJAX I went down to Melbourne Royals by 4 goals. The score was 17-13.

As Melbourne is third on the premiership ladder, this score indicates the improvement of the AJAX first team.

The ground was extremely muddy and the girls started very slowly in the first ten minute quarter.

The quarter should have been 15 minutes, but 10 minutes were played due to the bad conditions.

If full time had been played, the team may have been able to beat Melbourne. Best and fairest was Ruth Reisner.

AJAX II went down to T. & G. 20-25 in a very closely fought battle.

As T. & G. are also near the top in C-Z grade, this score indicates the improvement of the second team.

During the last quarter, AJAX II played all over T. & G. and caught up magnificently.

Carolyn Goldberg and Ann Gorenstein tied for best and fairest players.

Saturday: AJAX I v. Toorak Teachers College, (at the College), AJAX II v. Lowther Hall at Royal Park.

Mark Fine, 43, smiles as he connects with a left at AJAX Men's and Boys' Gymnasium boxing training on Tuesday night. Mark's "victim" is former Australian Olympian and ex-National lightweight boxing champion Max Carlos, who takes charge every Tuesday night of boxing and wrestling training at the AJAX Gymnasium (cr. Dandenong Rd. and Westerly St., East St. Kilda). Junior (5-10) session is 7-8 p.m. and intermediates (10-15) and seniors (over 15) train from 8-10 p.m. Training schedules see page 8. (H. AJAX DOWN TO LEADERS

By MARTIN LADER

The AJAX A grade basketball team gave a scare to Olympic Basketball Association leaders Kodu, but finally faltered in the last few minutes to lose, 33-25, last week at Albert Park.

AJAX started very slow, and trailed at half-time, 18-9. At the start of the second half, veteran players Don Finkelstein and Leon Diamond warmed to their task and lifted the Jewish squad to within four points of Kodu.

But the smooth-driving Kodu quintet halted AJAX's surge at this point to retain its position at the top of the ladder.

Finkelstein and Diamond each scored six points to pace their squad, and Collin Rubenstein, who has just been named to the Victorian under-18 State basketball team, threw in five points.

Other marksmen for AJAX were Maury Sunshine, Bernie Silver, Harvey Brown and Greg Hartman, with two points each.

The A grade is now 8-8 on the season.

B grade also suffered a heartbreaking loss to a team in the four when it lost to North United, 29-25, last week.

AJAX, which trailed most of the way, caught North United at 25-all with four minutes remaining. However, two quick baskets put North United back on top for good.

Joe Sabto once again led the AJAX B scorers with eight points. He was the game's leading rebounder and also provided most of the spark in his team, Allan Frederik, playing a good game at center, tapped in six points.

Harry Neufeld scored four points. Abe Estrach had three and Harold Brodie and Wolf Fankind each notched two for AJAX.

It was the ninth loss for B grade against only three victories.

In a junior game, Daniel Ginsburg scored 20 points — 16 of them in the second half but AJAX still got nipped, 28-26, by Brunswick and Coburg.

AJAX seemed down and out when it trailed 22-10 at the half, but Ginsburg put on his remarkable one-man demonstration to make a game of it. Jack Goldberg had four points for AJAX and Barry Kaye two.

The end of season performance sheet is out and many Jewish players are top performers in their grades.

Jon Marton, who has won 31 games and lost 5 leads, the A grade and Savvy Kramer has 22/11.

In B2 P. Kovacs leads with 34/2.

In C2 D. Kahan leads with 29/— and S. Nankin has 28/5. Alex. Hain leads D3 with 23/4 and of course Suzy Javor has the fabulous record of 33/0 to lead the A grade women's with junior Lucy Cohen a good performer at 28/8.

The occasion is a practice match between the club's top pennant teams, who both have byes this weekend, and will take the opportunity to gain much-needed match-practices.

The teams will play 4 best of three set rubbers as in pennant matches.

The teams are: Special B-H. Ernest-S. Kennett, H. Stanton-I. Saifer; B-grade-R. Shule-L. Carrick, D. Komesaroff-B. Cohn.

Girls interested in playing hockey, whether they have had previous hockey experience or not, are asked to contact AJAX captain Gillian Cohen at BL 3515 for further details. Coaching is available, and all enquiries are welcomed.

21-UP

Wink
Ben Alexander

petitions start soon.

The idea is that teams from AJAX sporting clubs such as South Judaean Tennis Club, AJAX Cricket Club, AJAX Football Club etc. etc., will enter a team each, and 3 tables will be available every Thursday night for these contests.

All information can be obtained from Elliot Lindell, WX 6201, Leon Hain, WB 2476, or Kurt Defris at FB 1802.

I wonder if they will let me play in the Cricket Club team?

JUST heard that Karoly Javor has been appointed non-playing captain of the Victorian men's and ladies' teams for the Australian championships in September.

Wife Suzy is certain to be selected in the women's team.

Tommy Kurtak and Jon Marton are in the running for places in the men's team.

Lucy Cohen has been selected to play for Victoria in the Australian junior carnival which will be held in conjunction with the NSW championships.

Sunday morning continues to be popular for youngsters down at the "Centre".

Last week 32 were in attendance with ages ranging from 10-15.

Alan Vermont says he will definitely play competition this summer. Another new player will be Harold Safer.

A suggestion has been made that Hakoah's two men's A grade teams will be:

No. 1: Kurtak, Marton, Kramer, Balint, and No. 2: Peters, Vermont, Alexander, and Goldman.

Will it ever come to this?

FIRST LOSS

AJAX senior men's squash team lost its first match for the season, going down 3-1 to RAAF at Laverton on Tuesday night.

In E grade AJAX 2nd team was beaten 3-1 by Balwyn.

Next week: Tuesday AJAX E v. Sandringham; Thursday AJAX D v. Hardware, both away.
